This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. both through and local business; indispensable; how built, 63. Omaha Belt Railway; now property of Missouri Pacific; litigation with that company, 64. Saint Joseph and Western, now part of Saint Joseph and Grand Island; how acquired, 64, 65. Agricultural business; stock and bonds bought in open market by Dillon and Gould for account Union Pacific; prices paid; nothing unfair; road has paid; company reorganized; bonds sold; stock still held, 65. Its future value problematical; earns surplus over interest and charges; no dividends on stock; Salina, Lincoln and Western Railway, 50 miles long, built in usual way, cost $14,000 per mile; Kansas Pacific supplies equipment, 66. South Park and Leadville Short Line; how acquired; Utah and Nevada Railway; Salt Lake to Stockton, via Garfield; remunerative, 67. Should be retained; recent dividend. Utah Central Railway, from Ogden to Salt Lake City; extended to Frisco; not profitable, owing to failure of Horn Silver mines and competition of Denver and Rio Grande, 68. Now earns operating expenses and interest on bonds; business, agricultural, grazing, and mineral; will not be a burden; furnishes valuable through traffic, 69. Wahsatch and Jordan Valley Railroad has been wound up; Colorado Central; Denver to Cheyenne; furnishing long-haul business; Union Pacific owns nearly all the bonds; varied nature of the business, 70. Two branches built by construction department; Colorado Central of Wyoming; built by Gould to force a consolidation with Denver Pacific; Gould's first connection with Union Pacific, 71. Present directors of Union Pacific who were such in the beginning, 71, 72. Echo and Park City Railway; a siding to the Ontario mine; has earned its cost fifty times over, 72. Its great value as a feeder; branches of the Union Pacific at west end more important than those at east end; Georgetown, Breckenridge and Leadville Railroad; "the loop line;" an engineering curiosity; mineral business; also pleasure travel, 73. Its value as a feeder to the Colorado Central; how a branch road whose whole traffic is less than operating expenses may be an advantage; Golden, Boulder and Caribou, merged in the Denver, Boulder and Marshall; Greeley, Salt Lake, and Pacific, 74. From Greeley to stone quarries at Stout; length 54 miles; constant deficit; very valuable feeder; haul is short, profit goes to main line; stone department of Union Pacific at Stout; not a distinct company; of great value; stone delivered in Mississippi Valley; Union Pacific derives haul over entire line, 75. Junction City and Fort Kearney; agricultural feeder to Kansas Pacific; unquestionably valuable; Kansas Central Railway; road runs west from Leavenworth; narrow gauge; at present a very poor piece of property; practice as to interest account with subsidiary roads, 76. Interest on bonds paid until this year; payment of interest on outstanding bonds has been stopped; Lawrence and Emporia, 25 miles long, Lawrence to Carbondale; mines worked out; road running at loss; why operated, 77, 78. Montana Railway; branch to the Anaconda smelting works; very profitable; no bonds; Union Pacific owns all stock; "the narrow gauge a first-class nuisance," 78. Comparison of narrow and standard gauges; still 1,500 miles of narrow gauge on Union Pacific; Omaha and Republican Valley; a system of branches in Nebraska, feeders of Union Pacific; about 750 miles in all; large increase of earnings in 1884; good future; acquired in regular way, 79. Marysville and Blue Valley, the link between Union and Kansas divisions; original cost of construction of Union Pacific, 80. Investments in branch lines from net earnings; several millions a year; why Union Pacific does not issue its own securities against branch lines; losses on branches fall on Union Pacific; how they are a profit, 81. Future of agricultural branches more certain than of mining branches; sinking funds; entire branch system worth $5,000,000 a year to Union Pacific, apart from the accounts of the branches themselves; investments in other enterprises; coal mines, elevators, exposition buildings, soda works, 82. Occidental and Oriental Steam-ship Company a source of profit; Central Pacific owns half, and Union Pacific owns half; witness opposed to these miscellaneous investments; on the whole, they have been profitable; payments to Government under 5 per cent. rule, paid in transportation; award of Court of Claims; the $900,000 item, 83. Interest of officers in other enterprises; an employé sometimes a nominal contractor; investment of land-grant mortgage sinking-fund; proceeds of sales of land, how disposed of, 84. Last dividend, April, 1884; various misfortunes in 1883; $4,000,000 less business in one year; net earnings for 1885 and 1886 used to pay floating debt, or for construction; $16,000,000 paid for improvement or construction since witness became president, half from net earnings, half from sale of securities, 85. Decrease of assets due to sale of securities, 86. Method of stating floating debt, 87. Hostile local legislation in Organization and construction; why built; plan for building road, 91. Length, 610 miles; character of country traversed; begun in 1880, operated in 1882; total cost of construction and equipment, $25,000 a mile, 92. Bond and stock issues, $25,000 each per mile; Union Pacific guarantied interest on bonds; one-half the stock now in Union Pacific treasury, other half of stock went with bonds, no additional payment; the great value of Oregon Short Line to Union Pacific, 93, 94. Miscellaneous character of business done; Idaho most promising undeveloped field the Union Pacific now has; comparison between Oregon Short Line and California and Oregon, 94, 95. Guaranty of interest by Union Pacific; advised by counsel that consent of Congress unnecessary, 95. Apparent deficit on interest more than made up by the profits on derived business, 96. Union Pacific has haul of 860 miles on Oregon Short Line business; long haul business more profitable than any other; railroad operation described; whether at certain rates movement of freight involves a loss, 97. Rates on derived business, whether remunerative; why branch lines can not be left to independent development, 98. Branches only profitable in connection with main line; Oregon Short Line increases net earnings of aided portion of Union Pacific; without branches Government's 25 per cent. would be reduced one-half; lease of Oregon Navigation Company to Oregon Short Line; rental, $2,200,000 a year, 99. Will be beneficial to the public and to Union Pacific; possible results to Union Pacific, 100. Salina and South Western Railroad; in Kansas from Salina to McPherson, 25 miles; an agricultural feeder; built in 1878; has more than paid operating expenses; ownership of securities; a valuable adjunct to main line; Salt Lake and Western; 57 miles from Ironton to Silver City, mainly mineral region, 101. Its deficit; the Solomon Railroad an agricultural road in Kansas; has paid operating expenses; very desirable; Utah and Northern, from Ogden to Garrison on Northern Pacific, 466 miles, built by Mormons, 102. Union Pacific's interest in 1875; its financial history; character of country traversed; how the business is handled, 103, 104. Large business; valuable feeder; constructive mileage; what it is, 104. Allowance of, by Union Pacific to branch roads; arrangement approved by Government directors; allowance of by Eastern roads to Union Pacific; effect on Government's 25 per cent., 105. Benefits to branch lines and to main line rates of freight, by whom fixed; special rates, 106. None since interstate law; discrimination in rates, 107. Between localities; neither discrimination in rates nor diversion of earnings in favor of branch lines, 108. Constructive mileage universal; guaranties made without consent of Congress of Saint Joseph and Grand Island bonds; also of collateral trust bonds of 1879; pools; transcontinental pool, membership, 109. Methods of division in pools; basis, the natural flow of the business, 110. Pool paid Pacific Mail $80,000 a month; comparison of rail and water transportation; Union Pacific's proportion of the $80,000; the pool an advantage to Union Pacific and to the Government, 111, 112. After disruption of pool road carried 35 per cent. heavier tonnage for 26 per cent. less money; reference for details to page 26 of report for 1886; 112. Pool settlements paid before reporting gross earnings; income account, how made up; distinction between general income and earnings; the Government's percentage computed on net earnings, 113. Mayor of Salt Lake City, 2201. Facilities, accommodations, etc, 2201, 2202. Fluctuations in tariff rates injurious to community; tariff rates finally adjusted, 2202.

ATKINS, ELISHA, testimony of:
U. P. director since 1869; time generally devoted to finances; form of construction account; construction enormously expensive, 750. Steel rails, $100 a ton; ties, $3 each; road financially embarrassed in 1873; stockholder of Crédit Mobilier, 751. Gould a valuable director; Gould's majority interest; Kansas Pacific consolidation, 752. Gould's control of Kansas Pacific; officials common to Union Pacific and Kansas Pacific; witness's Union Pacific holdings in 1879; 753. Holdings in Kansas Pacific in 1879; the letter to Humphreys and Dodge, 754. Gould's change of attitude, 755. Gould buys the Missouri Pacific; Gould's "scheme" for a competing road; witness's holdings of Saint Joseph and Western and their exchange for Union Pacific, 756. Was not present at meeting on January 14, 1880, at Gould's house, 757. Was present when terms of consolidation were discussed; what he knew of Central Branch when he signed for its purchase, 758. What he knew of Kansas Central, of Saint Joseph and Western, 759. The propriety of putting in at par what cost them forty, 759. The attitude of Gould after acquiring Missouri Pacific; witness's interest in branch lines, 760. Their value to Union Pacific; a bankrupt without them; built economically; some were mistakes, 761. His opinion of their value not the result of careful study; effect of Southern Pacific's lease of Central Pacific; threatening attitude of Kansas Pacific, 762. Pacific Mail subsidy, 763. The freight which seeks water routes, 763, 764. Normal route for sugar from Pacific coast, 764. Effect of cutting off mail subsidy, 764, 765. Percentage of passengers by Pacific Mail; reports examined before voting for dividends; net earnings, were they computed in different ways? 765. Witness's definition of net earnings; what are "expenses," 766. Had no interest in companies with which Union Pacific had leases or contracts, except a trust company, 766, 767. Loans negotiated by witness for Union Pacific, 767. Guaranty by Union Pacific of interest on Saint Joseph and Grand Island bonds, 768. Plan of settlement; an extension of one hundred years at 3 per cent.; use of the $7,000,000 in Government's hands, 769. Wants Government to stop persecution, and a chance to secure their own territory, 770, 773. Favors enlarging the security to the Government by building branch lines and putting their securities in escrow, 770. Extension for one hundred and fifty years preferable; additional security on new branch lines ample for Government lien, 771. If extended, would the debt then be paid, 772, 773. Debt to Government naturally expected to be renewed, 772. Witness's present interest in Union Pacific; "stood by the ship;" Union Pacific favorably located, 774. No improper personal benefits derived from Union Pacific, 775, 778, 779, 780. Only market rates of interest paid, 775. No dividends paid except out of net earnings; money never borrowed to pay dividends; not at meeting of January 14, 1880; 776. Approved of the consolidation; did Gould dictate the terms; the issue after consolidation of $3,400,000 of Kansas Pacific consols to Gould under market rates, 777, 778. Was the rate to Gould and Sage preferential, 779, 780. Witness's advantage in the sale of Saint Joseph bonds, 780. How the Government was benefited by the Pacific roads, 781. Former cost of transportation, 782.

CLELAND, JONAS M., testimony of:
Mayor of Sioux City; connection of Sioux City with Union Pacific; discrimination in favor of Omaha, 2276. Contribution by Sioux City, 2276, 2277. No complaints of discrimination; character of country along the line, 2277, 2278. Improved facilities; character of shipments; increase of traffic in last ten years, 2278. Desirability of connection with Union Pacific, 2278, 2279. Difference in freights from Sioux City and Kansas City, 2279.

CLEMENT, LEWIS M., testimony of:
Sworn statement relative to cost of construction of Central Pacific, 2576–2578. Connection with Central Pacific Railroad, 3202. Connected with construction from section 1 to Promontory Point, how estimates of measurements of excavation were obtained; original surveys in charge of chief engineer, 3203. Present custodian of the papers, 3203, 3204. The papers would not state total excavation; five classes of excavation, 3204. Measurements both vertical and horizontal, 3204, 3205. Determining between two classes of earth; no recollection of cost of removing earth, 3205. Grubbing and clearing on sections 75 to 100, 3205, 3206. Cost of part of grubbing, $5,000 per mile; "not Yankee forests," 3206. Cost of grubbing ranged from $200 to $4,000 or $5,000 a mile, 3206, 3207. Can not compare percentages of cost, 3207. Did not know that Mr. Crocker was interested in class 3, 3207, 3208. Chief engineer made the final estimates; excessive amount of third-class material. 3208. Class of work on section 83 to section 114 described, 3208, 3209. Section 75 to section 83 described; duties connected with the masonry, 3209. Stone along the line used for bridges, 3209, 3210. Classes of masonry; wood-work in charge of Arthur Brown; Arcade Creek the geological base of Sierra Nevadas, 3210. Construction more difficult east than west of the base, 3210, 3211. No fill more than 22 feet high; no cut deeper than 10 to 12 feet; 200 miles of the road not the most available line, 3211. Line surveyed by Union Pacific the better, 3211, 3212. Character of country from Ogden west, 3212. Engineers who had charge, 3212, 3213. Engaged in the work from 1863 to 1869; completed road extended to Reno in 1868; commenced at Ogden and worked west, 3213, 3214. Rails laid in 1869; laboring men in charge of Benson and West; witness employed for a while by Contract and Finance Company, 3214. Original cross-sections in custody of chief engineer; Interior Department furnished with profiles and maps; description of sections between 120 and Wells; grades reduced by cuts and fills, 3215. From Winnemucca to Wells described; could build the road from Wadsworth to Ogden for $22,000 a mile, including a moderate equipment; prices then beyond anything ever heard of; chief items of expense of construction, 3216. A great many teams employed; did not form any continuous estimate of cost of road, 3217. Cost of 7 miles from Sacramento eastward about $41,500 a mile, including all equipment except rolling-stock, 3217,3218. for next 150 miles eastward some miles cost from $200,000 to $300,000; witness guesses they averaged at least $84,000; next 627 miles must have cost $56,000 per mile, 3218, 3219. Nothing to add to his statement embraced in Governor Stanford's testimony; Central Pacific had to hurry; road from Sacramento to Wadsworth only would have been valueless; his classifications right and just, 3219. Wages to Chinamen and white men, 3219, 3220. A sum which somebody else must solve, 3220. Cost for ten days for 300 men about $4,000, 3220, 3221. Powder for grubbing; worked from 1862 till death of Mr. Judah, 3221. Reconnaissance of Feather River route; from Reno east cost $56,000 a mile, not including equipment, 3222. Cost of equipment per mile, 3222, 3223. Simply an estimate as to cost, without including contractors' profits; $300,000 not too much for construction from section 1 to section 18, 3223. Same conditions would never occur again, 3223, 3224. Not feasible to divide construction among different contractors; the railroad company could have built the road, 3224. The 10 per cent. a proper thing; can not speak as to profits; simply refers to actual doing of the work; mining crazes, 3225. How labor is affected by them, 3225, 3226. Impossible to get white labor; further explanation of the 10 per cent.; railroad companies not so well equipped as construction companies, 3226. Proportion of high-priced excavation, 3645, 3646. Witness did not revise the monthly estimates; locomotives hauled on sleighs; as to when the Contract and Finance Company commenced work; witness' books of construction from section 43 to east line of State, 3646. By whom kept and where, 3646, 3647. Witness does not know what became of them after work was done, 3647, 3648. Call for books of Charles Crocker & Co., 3648. Commission wish to ascertain whether or not they are in existence, 3648, 3649. Witness' recollection of compensation for work done from Newcastle to east line of State, 3649. Witness put the Central Pacific stock (received in part payment) into Contract Company, 3649, 3650. Were Stanford, Huntington, Hopkins, and Crocker designated to hold all the stock, 3650. Other holders of Contract Company stock, 3650, 3651. Bulk of Central Pacific stock issued to Crocker & Co. for construction, 3651. Why they passed it over to Contract Company in which others were interested, 3651, 3652. When that was done; great rejoicing on completion of road; earnings of Central Pacific up to May, 1869; 3652. As to suits brought against Stanford to recover on ground of misapplication of funds by directors, 3653. As to settlement of such suits—Lambard, Robinson, and Brannan suits, 3653, 3654. As to value of Central Pacific stock in 1869 and 1870; 3654. What was paid for stock in settlement of suits, 3654, 3655. Why the suits were settled; witness sold all his Central Pacific stock in 1871 to Stanford and associates for 12 cents on the dollar, 3655. The stock not paid for, but returned, 3655, 3656. The contract in writing; no dividend had been paid when stock was returned, 3656, 3657. The stock had not passed out of witness' possession; notes given for the stock, 3657. As to preparation and custody of contract, 3657, 3658. The sale a bona fide transaction, though no money paid; considerations of health involved in Mr. Crocker's retirement from road, 3658. What was cost of construction of stations 31 to 138, 3658, 3659. Witness' financial condition when he undertook construction of Central Pacific; construction of sections 31 to 138 cost Crocker & Co. all they got, 3659. Employment of Chinese, 3659, 3660. Had 12,000 employed at one time; as to white men employed, 3660. As to bills for extra work, 3660, 3661. Formation of Contract and Finance Company; capital stock, $5,000,000; interests of Huntington and associates, 3661. Witness then re-entered the board of Central Pacific, 3661, 3662. Character of work done by Contract Company; points of difficulty in construction; no special difficulties for four-fifths of the distance between Reno and Promontory Point, 3662. Commencing at Wadsworth, 501 miles built in nine months and twenty days; construction 200 miles in advance of the track; witness was president of Contract Company during construction, 3663. Witness first knew the books of Contract Company were missing in December, 1873, 3663; his efforts to find books; failure to find them a great misfortune, 3664. Conversed with Stanford about their disappearance; has no memoranda from them; when construction finished contract company held Central Pacific notes for $6,000,000, 3665. For what given; as to division of surplus assets among stockholders of contract company, 3666. The witness got $13,000,000, 3666, 3667. As to other dividends; thinks he got some land-grant bonds: does not remember that Messrs. S. S. H. and C. received $13,500,000, 3667. His profits on the construction contract; does not remember exact figures; was it $13,000,000? Does not recollect how many land-grant bonds he had; nor how much the profits were, 3668. Were the bonds given in payment of the notes? witness's connection with the Western Pacific; S. S. H. and C. owners of the Western Pacific stock, 3669. Witness's connection with the Central Pacific, 3669, 3670. Construction by Western Development Company; witness a stockholder in it; thinks he owned about a quarter of the stock; 3671. taining connecting roads; witness a stockholder in connecting companies and, if present, voted on leases, 3672. Did he vote for the lease of the Colorado River Bridge? 3673. All those contracts profitable to Central Pacific; propriety of directors voting on contracts in which they were interested on both sides; case of the Rocky Mountain Coal Company, 3673. Witness approved of everything that benefited Central Pacific; cost to Pacific Improvement Company of construction company from Delta to northern boundary of State, and payments for same by Central Pacific, 3674. Was it a proper contract? 3674, 3675. As to cost of the Colorado River Bridge; bill for $692,000 for the Oakland wharf extension, 3675. Central Pacific counsel objects to reading of memorandum, 3675, 3676. Not fair to put witness's defective memory against company's books; ashamed of nothing he has done, 3676. What he recalls of his release from liabilities to Central Pacific, 3676, 3677. Foreclosure by United States would be disastrous, 3677. Thinks Government should write off its claim; insufficient vouchers for large amounts charged to expenses or legal expenses; knows the moneys were applied to some good purpose, 3678. Has no specific knowledge of their application, 3678, 3679. Does not know whether they were use to influence legislation, 3679. Objection by counsel to questions as to Colton letters, 3679, 3680. Definition of the Rocky Mountain base-line; experts fixed it "for the purpose of the bill" at Arcade Creek, 3680. Nature of country east of Arcade Creek; the President of the United States fixed the base-line, 3681. Central Pacific unable to pay its debt to Government, 3681, 3682. Plan of settlement; one hundred and fifty years extension ought to be given; favors fixed annual payment, 3682. Effect on Central Pacific of construction of Southern Pacific, 3682, 3683. It was bound to be built anyway, 3683 Diversion of Government freight from Central Pacific, 3683, 3684. Probable effect of an act authorizing sale of Government interest in Central Pacific, 3684. Suggests that the Commission meet Mr. Huntington, to formulate a plan of settlement; has never used Central Pacific funds or securities to influence legislation, 3685. As to hostile legislation, 3685, 3686. Effect of Government aid to competing lines; grading of Sacramento levee very expensive, 3686. Aid-bonds from the base-line; Charles Crocker & Co. in debt after completion of Central Pacific; had Central Pacific stock as an asset; contract company in same condition, 3687. Connections made by Central Pacific to reach Ogden and San Francisco, 3687, 3688. Oakland and Alameda ferries purchased; acceptance of road by Government, 3688. Government slow in furnishing land patents, 3688, 3689. Construction of San Joaquin Valley road an advantage to Central Pacific; the ferries and consolidated lines an advantage, 3689. Land grant paid to members of contract company in satisfaction of loans, 3689, 3690. Mr. Cohen states that land-grant bonds were not paid out as dividends, 3690. Copy resolution September 9, 1873, from Central Pacific minutes, as to settlement of individual indebtedness to contract company, 3690, 3691. Mr. Cohen states that these notes were given for benefit of the Western Development Company, 3691. When company accepted the act of 1862, they understood that one-half the transportation money would go to pay the interest and that the other half would form a sinking-fund to retire the principal, 3691. Company disappointed as to Government freights and mails, 3691, 3692. Extra cost of road from early completion; premium on gold in 1864; 3692. Supposed Government would do as agreed in regard to transportation, 3693. Mr. Cohen states that Government saved in fifteen years, to January 1, 1886, $100,000,000 on freight and passengers, and $39,600,000, 3693, 3694. The construction of Southern Pacific injured Central Pacific's through business and benefited its local business; diversion of business from aided to unaided lines, 3694. Central Pacific directors have not failed in their obligations to Government, 3694, 3695. Road from San Francisco to San José built before completion of Central Pacific, 3695.

in Carson Valley, 3623, 3624. Prices proportionately high in San Francisco; 12½ cents per pound for freight across Sierra Nevadas; could not get it over at any price in winter; engaged ten or eleven years in building railroads, 3624. Constructed South Pacific Coast Railroad; Central Pacific could now be built for less than half original cost, 3625. The projectors thought to be "a little off," 3626.

DAVIS, JAMES W., testimony of:
Attorney-at-law, 1080. Admitted in 1856; a contractor of Union Pacific in 1868: furnished ties, timber, and lumber; contract was made in December, 1867; work completed in 1869; contracted with the trustees, not with company; had the "Davis contract;" took another contract "nominally," 1081. Assigned latter to trustees of road, without consideration; witness' associates in furnishing lumber and ties; prices for lumber and ties, 1082. Came out $200,000 behind; the firm wrecked by Boss Tweed's jurisprudence; judgment for $200,000 fraudulently taken against him; supplied ties and lumber for the entire road; neither witness nor his associates received more than contract price; the settlement made with trustees, 1083. Witness had $500,000 worth of material on hand when road complete, 1084. Did not appear before Congressional committee; was a director of the Wyoming Coal and Mining Company, which served Union Pacific with coal; assigned his stock to Union Pacific Railroad for nothing, 1085. It cost him nothing; does not know what was charged by the trustees to the railway company on account of ties and lumber; went visiting after being served with summons under wrong name; employed 3,000 men and 500 teams on his contract; his parol contract with Durant to deliver 2,000,000 feet of timber, 1086, 1087. Repudiated by company; his claim for breach of contract included in his settlement; charged only from 65 to 90 cents for most expensive ties on the road; was ruined by the contract; the contract made with seven trustees. 1087. Never had anything to do with Credit Mobilier; the contract to the trustees covered 146 miles, 1088.

The account for eight years included "legislative expenses of all characters," and amounted to $2,000, 3269. Only $2,000 spent from 1871 to 1879, 3270. Did witness receive money from Governor Stanford? 3271, 3272. "If so, it would appear on the vouchers," 3272. Receipt of money by witness for account of Central Pacific not a common occurrence, 3272, 3273. Does not remember number or size of payments; as much as $5,000 received at a single payment; attended sessions of California legislature between 1871 and 1879, 3273. Attended sessions of Nevada legislature since 1879, 3273, 3274. Member of California legislature and city marshal at Placerville; in employ of Central Pacific since 1871; knew A. C. Cleveland, of Nevada, 3274. Never paid him any money; no money paid to members of Nevada legislature during entire attendance, 3275. Discussions with regard to use of money, 3275, 3276. Imputations on witness; "perfectly oblivious to what was said," 3276. Mr. Twist, of Nevada, 3276. 3277. Knew all the members of the Nevada legislature; talked more with those in favor of hostile legislation; witness an "original Piute," 3277. Other railroad officers at Carson City; regular attorneys here attending supreme court; keeps no bank account or memoranda of receipts and payments of money, 3278. Considers written records a waste of time; witness's right to defend his personal character, 3279. Money not received until it was to be disposed of, 3279, 3280. How it was paid out, 3280. What the $3,000 voucher represented, 3280, 3281. How vouchers were made up, 3281. Drew small amounts on "tags"; what the "tags" represented, 3281, 3282. To whom given; other vouchers, 3282. Railroad officials in attendance on California legislature; everybody employed who "could pull a pound," 3283. William B. Carr and W. W. Stow, 3283, 3284. Names of railroad attorneys engaged in legislative work; extent of proposed hostile legislation, 3284. A suppositious case; witness's method of proceeding, 3285. With whom witness conferred in 1871 and 1872, 3285, 3286. No allusions made to money; defense of hostile legislation cost an immense amount of money, 3286. Declines to answer, under advice of counsel, as to payments of money to legislators, and as to promises of reward, etc.; and as to payments by other officers of the company; and as to payments or promises to persons not members of the legislature, 3287. Declines to answer as to influencing elections of California and Nevada legislators, 3287, 3288. Or the election of a member of Congress, 3288.

GARRETT, WILLIAM H., testimony of:
Division freight agent of Missouri Pacific; his duties; 1624. "An understood agreement" with Saint Joseph and Grand Island in regard to rates, 1624, 1625. No material effect on community; in effect only short time, 1625, 1626. Maintenance of fixed rates; special rates, 1626. Comparative rates on Central Branch and Saint Joseph and Grand Island, 1626, 1627. Higher prices for Grain market for Saint Joseph and Atchison shippers; grain combination on Grand Island road, 1628. Rate on Central Branch, 1628, 1629. Saint Joseph road unaffected by "short-haul" clause, 1629. Chief articles of transport, 1629, 1630. Decrease of freight business for present year; invasion of territory by competing lines; its effect, 1630. Operating expenses; increase of population and of shippers; change in character of traffic; increase of cattle shipments, 1631. Its effect on gross earnings, 1631, 1632. Less rates where Central Branch crosses Union Pacific, 1632. Rebates, 1632. No preferences given, 1632, 1633. Method of granting rebate; notice to shippers, 1633. No pools on Central Branch, 1633, 1634. A "mutual understanding" to maintain freights; rates to Missouri River points, 1634. Shipments from Saint Joseph, 1634, 1635. Giving rebates to influence trade; passes to shippers, 1635. Percentage division with Missouri Pacific, 1635, 1636. Its advantage; local and through traffic on Central Branch, 1636. The percentage of mileage, "an equitable rate," 1636, 1637. Long and short haul, 1637. The short haul and constructive mileage; principle on which constructive mileage is based, 1637, 1638. No advantage to Missouri Pacific; "routing" of the Central Branch business in favor of Missouri Pacific, 1638. Union Pacific people not interested in stock-yards or elevators, 1638, 1639.

GATES, I. E., testimony of:
Connection with Central Pacific, 3860. His duties, 3860, 3861. Seeing that contracts are carried out; how Huntington's checks were drawn, 3861. With whom bank accounts were kept, 3861, 3862. Form of check, 3862. Indorsements, 3862, 3863. His knowledge of the transaction; proceedings as to checks, 3863. Special bank account; where are the stub-check books? 3864. Name of witness upon vouchers, 3864, 3865. Mr. Huntington's monthly reports, 3865. Witness's connection with certain checks simply clerical; never in Washington; recollection of railway legislation in Congress, 3866. As to the Wilson committee's call for books and papers; disappearance of books, 3867. Persons connected with Washington business, 3867, 3868. Regarding Mr. Huntington's correspondence; letter books, 3868. No knowledge of moneys being paid to influence legislation, 3868, 3869. Can give no light as to application of checks amounting to between $300,000 and $400,000, 3869. Why checks were printed to Mr. Gates's order, 3869, 3870. Book-keeper could only indicate that check was drawn to order of witness; stub entries would give no further information, 3870. Mr. Norwood's accounts with Southern Pacific Company; how the payments were made; the amounts, 3934, 3935. Paid with checks or cash? does not recall that any of the payments to Mr. Norwood were on account of Central Pacific; Mr. Huntington gave the instructions, 3935, 3936.

GERARD, LEANDER, testimony of:
President of Columbus State Bank; interested in Columbus Packing Company for a time; high rates forced the company out of business, 1477. Business competition, 1477, 1478. Proportion of local rates too high; what forced the packing trade to Omaha, 1478. Better rate secured for a time through competition; promises of a rebate from Union Pacific; rates the same on competitive roads; competition no advantage, 1479. Effect of roads on population; grain facilities, rates and passes; interference in elections, 1480. Pressure on merchants; advantages extended to friendly merchants; preferential rates, etc., 1481. Names of cattle shippers, 1481, 1482. No general complaints at present; passenger and freight accommodations pretty good, 1482.

GERE, CHARLES H., testimony of:
Editor of the State Journal newspaper; sentiment of the community generally friendly, 1506. Effect of pools on shipments, 1506, 1507. Discrimination against individuals; special and private rates, 1507. Discriminations against communities, 1507, 1508. Railroad facilities good; influencing legislation, 1508. Interference in elections, 1508, 1509. Plan of settlement; favors extension; present railroad agreement to maintain rates, 1509. Effect of interstate-commerce law, 1509, 1510. Extension of time; effect of foreclosure; main line and branches should be under one management, 1510.

GLASS, W. S., testimony of:
Member of Kansas legislature in 1882 and in 1886; complaints against railroads, 1550. Comparison of rates on different roads, 1550, 1551. Rebates; influencing legislation, 1551. Discrimination between coal dealers, 1551. The lumber trade; Kansas Railway Commission; no power to fix rates; can only gather statistics, 1552.

GLICK, G. W., testimony of:
Governor of Kansas in 1882–'84; farmer, stock-raiser, and pension agent, 1556. Complaints of discrimination and excessive rates, 1556, 1557. Rebates and drawbacks; facilities afforded, 1557. Interfering in elections, 1557, 1558. Sentiment of the community prior to railroad commission, very bitter against roads, 1558. Discriminations in general, 1558, 1559. Discrimination as to barbed wire; numerous complaints in 1883; 1559. Traffic of Central Branch very large, 1560. Since establishment of Kansas railroad commission, complaints substantially ceased; plan of settlement; Government justified in canceling debt; road not able to pay Government debt, 1560, 1561. Central Branch traffic; its development; freight rates on Atchison and Topeka lower than on Central Branch, 1561.

GOBLE, MILTON H., testimony of:
Interested in Pacific Hotel Company since December 1, 1884; Union Pacific has half interest, 1247. Witness' former connection with Union Pacific; cash capital of the hotel company, $50,000; Union Pacific contributed buildings; while an official, never expended money to influence legislation, 1248. Mr. Kimball's alleged interest in elections; overcharges and rebates; pools, 1249, 1250. Union Pacific eating-houses; no competition; witness' direction that, "to allay dissatisfaction along the line of road, freight be billed at full tariff, but bill rendered against Pacific Hotel Company at half tariff rates;" his explanation, 1253,1254. Half rates in the original contract; Pacific Hotel Company pays no freight; 1254. Reduced rates to company's employés as an offset; a matter of concession; how it affects competitors; meals at schedule rates; agreement between Union Pacific and Markel, Swobe & Co., 1255. Provision as to rates of freight; impossible for any eating house to compete; necessity of railroad control of eating-houses, 1256. Sixty thousand dollars profit last year; disposition of company's share, 1257.

GOODRIDGE, HENRY, testimony of:
The Stuart coal mine, 1966. An allowance of $1,340; 1966, 1967. Only obtained after putting claim in attorney's hands; rebate to Mr. Binford, the Union Pacific agent; thinks there were other rebates made, 1967. His business, how affected by the Marshall Coal Company, 1967, 1968. The community not benefited by rebates or preferential rates, 1968.

GOODWIN, ALMON, testimony of:
Counsel for trustees in suit to release Denver Pacific stock, 242, 243. Expedition desired, 243. Not aware of impending consolidation; history of the proceedings, 243. What the trustees told witness as to the value of the security to be released, 243, 244. Without value as it stood, but when freed might be worth $200,000 or $300,000; 244. After release worth about $3,000,000; 244, 245.

GOODWIN, C. C., testimony of:
Editor of Salt Lake Tribune, 2202. Plan of settlement; small bonds at low terms of interest; should have proceeds of road for five or six years to build extensions, 2203. Description of country through which lines should be built, 2203, 2204. Irrigation necessary to raise crops; the ore deposits; reasons for extension of Union Pacific system to Pacific coast near Los Angeles, 2204. A shorter through line; this extension necessary; the route, 2205. Favors funding Government lien into long bonds at low rate, payable by installments annually, 2206. Extension of line to Puget Sound advocated; resources of Washington Territory, 2206, 2207. Railroad situation in Utah; danger to Union Pacific from anticipated competitors; development of Union Pacific system of vital consequence, 2207.

GOULD, JAY, testimony of:
His early connection with Union Pacific, 446. Bought about 100,000 shares in 1873; soon afterward found the property in danger; funding the floating debt into bonds; became director in 1874; 447. Not connected with Fisk suit or the procurement of injunction against Union Pacific in 1869; did not suggest Kansas Pacific consolidation in 1875; 448. The Colorado Central not a rival of Kansas Pacific; their routes, 449. Agreement between Union Pacific and Kansas Pacific in 1875; 449, 450 Never consummated; Kansas Pacific's claim to pro-rate; why the Colorado Central was built, 456. Another agreement, its effect on Denver Pacific: another agreement in 1875 looking to adjustment of differences between Kansas Pacific and Union Pacific; no interest in Kansas Pacific prior to 1878; owned about 200,000 shares Union Pacific in 1878; had forgotten Kansas Pacific pooling agreement, 451. Securities of the Kansas Pacific signed for by witness, 451, 452. The income bonds; the difficulties which culminated in the pooling agreement; Kansas Pacific incumbrances, 452, 453. The Denver extension mortgage; original purpose of pooling agreement, to retire at a scaled rate all liens subsequent to first mortgage and government lien, and substitute an issue of stock, 453. This plan abandoned and the consolidated mortgage made; how the prices in the pooling agreement were fixed, 458. Seventeen million dollars to be funded into $4,855,300 in stock; summary of original scheme; when scheme for consolidated mortgage took shape; mortgage drawn by Judge Usher, 455. Method of scaling securities in consolidation, 456, 457. One million one hundred thousand dollars out of the $1,500,000 funding bonds owned by Ames, Dillon, and witness, 457. Rates for income bonds; witness fixed the prices at a fair figure; had over $2,000,000 of them himself, 458. Dillon, Villard, and Sage were trustees of the pool; how did witness know how many bonds he was entitled to get, 459. His recollection of the re-organization certificates; the withdrawal of the Kansas Pacific stock from pool, 460. Bought out the Saint Louis interest, 460, 461. Sold one-sixth to Sage; amount of this purchase, 461. Re-organization certificates; did witness pay 12½ cents for the 42,000 shares of stock, or was it thrown in, 462. What is meant by phrase "re-organization bonds" in Mr. Sage's account 462, 463. At consolidation witness owned 27,000 shares Union Pacific and 40,300 shares Kansas Pacific; former quoted at 93½, latter at 98; Gould's purchases of stamped income bonds, 463. Condition of Kansas Pacific when bought by witness; $4,000,000 interest arrears; credit, poor; why Gould bought the stamped income bonds; what they covered; other holders of stamped incomes, 464. His purchase in 1879 of about $2,000,000 Denver Pacific bonds from Amsterdam people at 74; of the $4,000,000 Denver Pacific stock Kansas Pacific owned $3,000,000, and witness $1,000,000; 465. His interest in Kansas Pacific and Saint Joseph and Western, 466. Copy account showing witness' purchases and sales during 1879 of Saint Joseph and Denver first-mortgage bonds, stock and receiver's certificates, and Saint Joseph Bridge bonds and stock; also amounts of Union Pacific stock received in exchange, 466–469. Witness allowed other Union Pacific people to take what interest they chose in these purchases, 469, 470. Witness also had 2,661 Kansas Pacific consolidated sixes, and 1,000,000 Union Pacific collateral sixes at consolidation. Copy of his Hastings and Grand Island account, 470. The 8,819 shares stock Saint Joseph and Denver went with the bonds as "trimmings," 471; 400 of them sold for hotel bills. Details of purchases of Saint Joseph Bridge bonds and stock and receiver's certificates. Witness built Hastings and Grand Island; thus acquired his interest, 472. "Union Pacific advances" represent actual payments to contractor, on witness' account. Payment of $25,000 to Bond for services as receiver, 473. Three hundred and seventy-five thousand dollars Hastings and Grand Island bonds cost witness $220,839.25, 4,000 shares stock thrown in, 473, 474. Held 170,000 shares Union Pacific on January 1, 1879; sale of Union Pacific stock to syndicate in 1879; his interest reduced to 27,000 shares on January 1, 1880; had his interest then put out of his name; why, 474. Immediately after consolidation his name re-appeared as owner of 99,000 new shares; how this amount made up, 475. Made sales immediately after consolidation; wanted to distribute the stock; it had advanced 30 points; nominal transfers by witness of 60,000 shares; the letter to Humphreys and Dodge, 476, 477. Why they were selected; witness purchased Missouri Pacific, November 13, 1879; 477. No knowledge that Humphreys and Dodge made a careful examination of the question, 477, 478. What considerations they should have gone into; the future as a criterion in estimating railroad values, 478, 479. The letter to Humphreys and Dodge and witness' connection therewith, 479. Their report; their suggestion as to the capital stock of the new company, the one witness had thought of, 479. Did they merely copy a form prepared by some one else, 479, 480. Mileage of Union Pacific, Kansas Pacific, and their branches, 481, 482. When witness received this report he was not in favor of the consolidation, 482. Alarm caused by witness' resignation from Union Pacific; forced to carry consolidation through; would have paid $1,000,000 rather than do so, 483. Acquaintance with John F. Dillon, 483, 484. Did not confer with him as to letter to Humphreys and Dodge, 484. Preparation of articles of consolidation, and witness' connection therewith, 484, 485. Names of the men who urged witness to carry consolidation through, 485, 486. How witness came to be named a director, 486. Substance of preliminary paper agreeing to consolidation, 486, 487. Suit to release Denver Pacific stock; conversation with Holmes on that subject, 487. Decided to put Denver Pacific stock into consolidation; his own at 10 cents, and the 3,000,000 trust stock at a valuation of $500,000. 488. By the terms of consolidation, Denver Pacific stock was to be exchanged at par; witness therefore knew that, if freed, it was worth as much as Union Pacific Railway stock, 488. Mr. Dillon's letter to Gould and Sage, trustees, and their reply, 488, 489. Verification by witness of answer to complaint,

GOULD, JAY, testimony of—Continued.
489, 490; Mr. Calef's affidavit, 490; did not think it his duty as trustee to state to Mr. Holmes the fact that the stock, if released, was to be exchanged for Union Pacific, 490. Why the proceeds of the released stock were not paid back to the trustees; why Denver Pacific was included in the consolidation, 491. Trustees could get $500,000 for the released stock, or nothing; not informed as to Dillon's testimony before referee, 492. Tables of mileage, bonded debt, and stock of Union Pacific, Kansas Pacific, Leavenworth Branch, and Denver Pacific, 492, 493. List of sales on stock exchange from January 1, 1880, to January 24, 1880; 493–495. Table showing formation of Kansas Pacific consolidated mortgage, 496. Copy account of Kansas Pacific pool, 497. Abstract of witness's journal entries concerning the pool, 497–501. Memorandum of bonded debt of Kansas Pacific and interest charges when consolidated bond was issued; memorandum of Kansas Pacific land grant, 502. Kansas Pacific reorganization certificates, 502, 503. Reasons for exchange of Denver Pacific stock with Kansas Pacific Company rather than with trustees of consolidated mortgage, 503–505. Witness's purchase of Missouri Pacific; his idea of another through road to Ogden; the true line across the continent, 505. Effect of disclosure of the fact of purchase, 506, 507. Substance of preliminary paper proposing consolidation, 507, 508. Witness felt "committed" to the consolidation with Union Pacific; the proposed extension of Missouri Pacific would have destroyed Union Pacific, 509. Witness bought Missouri Pacific to protect Kansas Pacific; Garrison paralleling the latter; witness bought out Garrison, 509. As to Missouri Pacific extension, though tempted, witness did not yield, 509, 510. Proposed extension would have wiped out the security of the United States; Government legislation destructive of its own interest, 510. Offer to pay present worth of Government debt in cash, 510. When and to whom made; amount between $15,000,000 and $17,000,000, 511. Accrued interest, 511, 512. Why offer refused, 512. No recollection of the circumstances of the consolidation meetings, 613. Circumstances connected with his letter of resignation, 513, 514. Reasons for resignation, 514. No deals made before resignation, 514, 515. The prices for securities not then fixed, 515. Circumstances attending resignation, 515, 516. The object of getting resignation on record, on January 24. The object of canceling the Colorado lease, 516. What witness then knew of the Humphreys-Dodge report, 516, 517. Circumstances of Kansas Pacific consolidation, 517, 518. First meeting Union Pacific Railway, January 26, 1880. Witness motion ratifying consolidation, 518. Object of resignation from Kansas Pacific and Union Pacific, 518, 519. Why both resignations were moved by Sage, 519, 520. Kansas Pacific minutes as to purchase of branch lines; refers to agreement made at witness's house, not to any binding corporate action, 520. Statement of securities embraced in this purchase, 520, 521. Explanation of apparently increased holdings, 521, 522. Statement of witness's purchase of Kansas Central bonds and stock, and Denver Pacific stock, and their exchange for Union Pacific stock, 523. Situation of Kansas Central; at time of purchase witness knew nothing of its condition; purchase of 5,000 shares Denver Pacific from Arapahoe County, 524. Statement of purchases of Central Branch stock, 524, 525. How the sellers deceived witness, 525. Ames and Gould contracts, 525, 526. Collateral trust bonds, 526. Lease of Kansas Central and Central Branch to Missouri Pacific a part of the consolidation arrangement; Central Branch first leased to Kansas Pacific, 527; terms under which Missouri Pacific operates it; financial condition of Central Branch when sold by witness to Union Pacific; has it earned any dividend since 1880?, 528. Witness paid Garrison $3,000,000 for 4,000 shares Missouri Pacific, 528, 529. Conditional offer by witness to sell Kansas Central bonds and stock, 529. Why witness was paid in stock instead of bonds, 529, 530. Did not Union Pacific Railway assume the obligations of constituent companies?, 530, 531. Why payment not made in Kansas Pacific consolidated bonds; can not explain origin of authority to settle in stock, 531, 532. Pool securities, 532. An explanation asked for the difference between amount of pool securities at commutation rates and amount which mortgage states was to be given for them, 532–534. Witness never knew of the discrepancy, 533. It probably arose from advances made by witness to pay interest on Denver extension bonds, 533, 534. Holders of pool securities got no preference. The "cash advances" theory untenable, 534. The "baby bonds," 534, 535. Witness's purchase of Denver and South Park, 535. Had an interest in its construction, 535, 536. His purchase from Governor Evans for Union Pacific; turned in his own stock and bonds at same price, 536. His interest in the Utah and Northern; turned same over to Union Pacific at cost, 537. His interest in other branch lines, 537, 539. His loans of money to Union Pacific. Persons employed at Washington to watch legislation, 539, 540.

GOULD, JAY, testimony of—Continued.
No recollection of recommending employment of Ordway, 540, 541. Witness' recommendation that suits be brought against Credit Mobilier and trustees of Ames and Davis's contracts, 541, 542. Appointment of committee to negotiate and settle, 542. The $4,000,000 note, 542, 543. Suit by Credit Mobilier in Massachusetts, 543. Suit against Hazard; equity suit brought by Government against Union Pacific and persons interested in Ames and Davis's contracts; concerning Credit Mobilier's shareholders' assignment to Union Pacific and their release from liability, 545, 546. Article 22 of consolidated mortgage, 547. No bonds issued except those provided for by $3,400,000 contract at other rates than those specified in article 23; 547, 548. $2,000,000 bonds issued to witness to repay advances for interest, 548. The authority in article 23; bonds issued to Maxwell and Graves, 549. The Union Pacific entitled to draw bonds, 549, 550. Issue of bonds to Oliver Ames for Central Branch stock, 550, 551. Issue to Russell Sage; duty of trustees as to delivering bonds to Union Pacific, 551. Issue to Gould and Sage, trustees, 551, 552. Dealings of trustees with Union Pacific; other issues to Gould and Sage, 553. Prices received by witness for bonds surrendered, 553. Total indebtedness of Union Pacific December 14, 1879; indebtedness of Kansas Pacific at that time, 555. Witness's holdings in Union Pacific and Kansas Pacific, 555, 556. Owned Missouri Pacific absolutely; ownership of the $4,000,000 Denver Pacific stock, 556. Amount of Kansas Pacific consolidated bonds now outstanding, $16,430,000; the $4,000,000 Denver Pacific stock again; a portion used to pay Gould; Union Pacific could just as well have issued its own stock, 557. Witness in a position to dictate the terms of the consolidation; actual cost of witness's holdings of Kansas Pacific, 558. Indebtedness of Union Pacific after consolidation; object of change of name of Union Pacific from railroad to railway, 559, 560. Witness and associates did not manipulate the market in 1878–1880; the Thurman act, 560. Gross and net earnings of Union Pacific in 1878–1883, 560. Dividends of Union Pacific and its payments under Thurman act; the telegraph line required by Congress to be constructed, 561, 562. Pool securities, their conversion at a different rate from mortgage rate, 564, 565. Provision of mortgage as to conversion of branch bonds, 565, 566. $2,000,000 of bonds issued to witness at 75; how rate fixed, 566, 567. Explanation of other issues of bonds at other than mortgage rates, 567, 568. No over issue of bonds, 568. Class of credits given Union Pacific in bond account: article 4; proceeds of land sales applicable to interest, 568. Not credited with interest accruing on consolidated bonds 569. Provisions of consolidated mortgage, 569, 570. No overissue, 570. Enough remains to retire all outstanding issues, even at par; how Utah Northern was acquired; sold to Union Pacific by witness at cost, 571, 572. Earnings of Denver and South Park, 1880–'84, 572. Its purchase by witness, 572, 573. No profit to witness on sale to Union Pacific, 573. Rio Grande's lease to Atchison company, 573, 574. His sales of Kansas Pacific to Sage and Dillon; value of these securities at consolidation; value of Saint Joseph Bridge bonds if consolidation had not taken place, 574, 575. Purchases of Saint Joseph and Denver first-mortgage bonds in 1879; their quotations not the result of "washed" sales; why they advanced so rapidly in 1879–'80, 575. Purchase made to protect Union Pacific from the Iowa pool lines, 576, 577. Union Pacific then hampered by not having charter power to throw out branches and thus protect its territory, 577. Has no present interest in Union Pacific, 577, 578. The building of branches during witness's connection with company, 578. No knowledge of individuals profiting by the building of branch roads; probable effect of severing the branches; motive for purchasing Central Branch Union Pacific stock, 578, 579. Did he pay too much, 580. Central Branch and Kansas Central more valuable now; purchase of the latter from Garrison, 580. Will take Saint Joseph and Western, Central Branch and Kansas Central back now at cost, and pay cash, 580. Particulars as to Denver Pacific, 581, 582. Mortgage in default, stock of no value; security of bondholders under consolidated mortgage improved; why proceeds of $3,000,000 Denver Pacific stock not turned in as security for consolidated bonds, 582, 583. Contract and Finance Company stock held by Stanford, Hopkins, Crocker, witness, and a few others; terms of contract between that company and Central Pacific, 11. Western Pacific; consolidation with Central Pacific in 1870; capital stock increased several times, 12. Lathrop Branch, Lathrop to Goshen, 146 miles; built by Contract and Finance Company; never saw construction contract; practice of company as to making such contracts, 13. This road a branch, not a separate organization; other branches; from Niles to Oakland, 25 miles, constructed in 1868 or 1869 by Contract and Finance Company; also from Roseville to State line; California Navigation Company's steamers, 14. Witness and associates bought steamers and control of stock of California Pacific, 15. Sale of steamers to Central Pacific for $800,000; motives for purchase; operation of steamers, 16; California and Oregon road; built from San Francisco to Tehama, then consolidated with Central Pacific, which continued it to State line; ultimate destination, Portland, Oregon; Oregon and California, a corporation to build from Oregon and meet the California and Oregon; both received land grant; details of construction; consolidation with Central Pacific, 17. Details of subsequent construction; road from Redding to State line built by Pacific Improvement Company; witness and associates main stockholders, 18, 32. Terms of the contract; all stocks and bonds payable under that contract have been issued; issue of Central Pacific before 1862, 19. Cash subscriptions less than $100,000; after act of 1862, payments under Crocker contract made in stocks and bonds; Government subsidy; rate on different parts of road; delivery of Government bonds to witness, and their sale to the public, 20. Sold some at 89, bought gold as high as 220; how the stock was issued; at first to subscribers who paid money, later delivered directly to contractors, 21. Printed reports of Central Pacific for year 1872 probably the first; witness not consulted as to keeping accounts or making statements; earnings of Central Pacific; $17,000,000 net earnings from 1864 to 1872; application of that sum shown by company's books, 22. Miscellaneous and legal expenses, 23. Names of counsel, 23. How such expenses audited, 24. Richard Franchot as counsel in Washington; no vouchers required from Franchot or his successor, Sherrell; amount

thus paid thirty or forty thousand a year, 24. Franchot not a practicing lawyer; Sherrell, Franchot's successor; amounts paid him, 25. Theory of the general balance sheet, 26; increase in construction account of nine millions between 1872 and 1885, 27; spent on improvements at Oakland Point and Mission Bay, and on new steel rails for whole road, 27. Improvements at Oakland Point, 27. Government mortgagedoes not apply to them, nor to the Mission Bay property; California and Oregon extension; its cost; increase in equipment account; change in character of equipment, 28. Bookkeeping treatment of decrease in value of rolling stock, 28. Item of $131,000,000 for construction of road is exact cost taken from contracts without allowance for deterioration or depreciation; increase in cost of "shops"; in 1885, items for shops and machinery in shops double those for 1872; formerly repair shops; now, locomotive works; location, Sacramento; Government lien applies, 29. Real estate; increase from 1872 to 1885, represented by property in Oakland and Sacramento bought for railroad purposes; lien of Government on equipment; "steamer division property," depreciation through wear; sinking funds, 30. What bonds have been redeemed; how sinking fund disposed of; most of it in Southern Pacific, 31. Pacific Improvement Company had about three millions of it; don't know on what security; no sinking fund for United States bonds except sinking fund in U. S. Treasury, 32. Claim that Government owes company $2,500,000; cash due from United States for business over non-aided roads, 33. First dividend in 1873; $61,000 for legal expenses in 1873; $84,000 legal expenses for 1874, 34. Witness's unvouched accounts, two hundred thousand a year; would pay Franchot $5,000 or $10,000 without voucher or account, 35. Though required vouchers for other expenses; character of services for which no vouchers were required; money required to explain matters; nature of Franchot's business, 36. His requirements larger when Congress in session; unvouched items not used to influence legislation, except to explain matters; attorneys to help Franchot; does not know their names; influencing legislation by oral argument, 37, 38. Moral influence distinguished from buying votes; expenditures for cigars and champagne dinners, 38. Annual statement of amounts charged to general legal expenses, 1875–'85; total over $2,000,000, 39. Lease of Central Pacific to Southern Pacific; economy of one management; principal men in both companies the same, 40. Freight rates fixed by operating department; no pooling arrangement; route of the Southern Pacific; proportion of through trade on Southern Pacific as compared with Central Pacific, 41. The diversion of profits; through business of Central Pacific diminished, but no attempt to influence freight in favor of Southern Pacific; the regulation of freights done by general manager; advantage to witness and associates to have freight go over Southern Pacific rather than Central Pacific, 42. Congress not consulted about lease to Southern Pacific, nor were the stockholders, 43. As to vouchers that do not give details of expenditures, 3696. Witness has no further explanation of them; expenditures all for proper purposes, 3697. As to fees to members of Congress, 3697, 3698. Legal assistance from members of Congress; employing persons recommended by members of Congress, 3698, 3699. Selection of persons to gather information; class of persons selected, 3699. Engaged usually for a single session, 3699, 3700. Relations of such persons to members of Congress; witness consulted General Franchot and Mr. Sherrell, 3700. Funds used in explaining matters to Congress, 3700, 3701. To prevent Congress and the departments from committing robbery; privileges of counsel, 3701. Contending for two years against Thomas A. Scott, whom they employed at that time, 3702. His letters to Colton, 3702, 3703. Nothing wrong in the originals unless it was the grammar and spelling; the Colton suit, 3703. Never read the letters since he wrote them, 3703, 3704. Can not swear whether he did or did not write a particular letter; would rather not tell to whom he referred as a hog, 3704. On the ground that it is unpleasant to answer; (another sentence quoted), does not recollect it; meaning of the word "switch," 3705. Meaning of the phrase "commercial men"; (another letter shown) as to sending witness an order for engine; doubts having written the letter; "with $200,000 I can pass the bill"—his best recollection is that that portion is made up, 3706. Witness has an impression that the Colton letters are much garbled, 3706, 3707. If he wrote the words "I believe with $200,000 I can pass our bill," would be willing to have that published; "it costs money to fix things;" what was meant by the word "fix," 3707. Phrase "commercial men" did not mean men whose votes were purchasable; does not suppose Mr. Scott ever bought a vote; letter dated New York, March 4, 1886; thinks it contains some things he did not write,

3708, 3709. "The R. R. Committee of the House was set up for Scott;" what "set up" referred to, 3709. No personal objection to the introduction of any letters written by him, 3709, 3710. Light-weight politicians crying from the house tops; his connection with injunction restraining production of the Colton letters, 3710. As to correctness of printed copies of the letters, 3710, 3711. Could not say they are correct; copy letter dated November 20, 1874, from Huntington to Crocker; protest by counsel against mode of questioning, 3712. No recollection of having written it, 3712, 3713. Does not think he wrote sentence "this coming session of Congress will be composed of the hungriest set of men that ever got together;" personally would not object to production of original letter, 3713. Copy letter November 13, 1874, to Colton in regard to coal, 3713, 3714. What is "the object of raking up these old personal matters;" not for political purposes, 3714. Instructed his people never to use money in any immoral or illegal sense; copy letter to Colton, dated December 1, 1874; 3715. Does not remember who the men were "that can be convinced;" copy letter to Colton, dated December 10, 1874; does not remember allusion as to importance of disconnecting Southern Pacific from Central Pacific; copy letter of December 8, 1874, to T. A. Scott, 3716. Copy letter, Scott to Huntington, December 9, 1874; copy letter, Huntington to Scott, December 10, 1874; 3717. Copy letter, Huntington to Colton, December 11, 1874; suggestion as to bringing Colonel Gray, 3717, 3718. No recollection of it; copy letter to Colton, March 3, 1875; "have you sent passes and money?" does not recall it, 3718. Does not understand allusion to passes and money; copy letter to Colton, December 25, 1875, as to Scott going to Mexico; copy letter to Colton, April 9, 1875; 3719. Allusion to argument before railroad committee, 3719, 3720. Copy letter to Colton, April 22, 1875, as to Independence Narrow Gauge road; copy letter to Colton, May 28, 1875; "Governor S— said some good things;" witness' habit of numbering letters received, 3720. Copy letter, May 1, 1875, urging defeat of ——— (a member of the House); does not remember writing it; has used the expression "wild hog," 3721. Declines to state to whom he referred, 3721, 3722. Thinks Central Pacific money was not used to prevent the "wild hog's" return; copy letter, dated September 15, 1875; does not recall it, 3722. Does not remember talking to S. T. Gage in regard to franchises in Arizona, in 1875; copy letter of September 17, 1875; allusions to Fitch and Pickering; did not the initials "A. A. C." refer to Mr. Cohen? 3723. Copy letter, September 27, 1875, to Colton as to Scott's efforts for Texas Pacific, and as to Arizona charters; allusion to the people of San Diego, 3724. Suggestion as to calling Arizona legislature together; remembers something about it; thinks the payment of $25,000 for the expenses of an extra session would be a proper expenditure by Central Pacific, 3725. Copy letter, October 19, 1875, to Colton; allusion to "a member of the Forty-fourth Congress, an ex-governor and a slippery fellow;" witness does not remember writing it; might have written some parts of it, 3726. Copy letter, November 10, 1875, to Colton; allusion to employment of some one who was "obnoxious to the Republican side of the House," 3727. Who "came over in the director's car with Mr. Crocker"; was it ex-Senator Gwyn? he was a confidential agent; as to payments to him; 3728. Copy letter of December 17, 1875, to Colton; suggesting that railroad and land committees of Congress would not favor subsidies, 3728, 3729. Matters referred to somewhat familiar to witness; copy of letter of December 13, 1875; as to Scott's making terrible efforts and numerous promises; witness does not recall it, 3729. Copy letters of January 14, 1876, as to the value of ——'s services, 3729, 3730. William B. Carr's relations with the company at that time; what are a "general utility" man's services? 3730. Was not Mr. Carr a lobbyist? are such services worth $10,000 to $20,000 a year? copy letter of January 17, 1876, 3731. "I believe with $200,000 I can pass our bill;" what this meant; witness does not know whether he wrote it or not; the bill referred to, 3732. Copy letter of January 29, 1876; "Scott making a terrible effort to pass his bill;" 3732, 3733. Witness does not think he wrote it, 3733. Copy letter of December 22, 1875; the railroad committee, "not necessarily a Texas Pacific, but a commercial committee," 3733, 3734. What "commercial" meant; "they can be convinced that ours is the right bill for the country," 3734. Did not mean that the committee was purchaseable, 3734, 3735. "Commercial" should have been "geographical;" if he used the word "commercial," it was not in an offensive or sinister sense, 3735. Who were the Senators whom Scott "switched?" copy letter of March 4, 1876; "the Railroad Committee of the House was set up for Scott;" what this meant, 3736. "A difficult matter to switch a majority of the committee away from him" (Scott); copy letter of March 22, 1876; "Scott making a very dirty fight;" what this meant; some things published by Scott's men that were personal and unjust, 3737. What was meant by "I keep on high ground?" witness once told Franchot not to use wine and cigars to influence legislation; copy letter April 27, 1876; the speeches of "a drunken, worthless dog" printed and sent broadcast by Scott; witness does not know to whom this referred, 3738. As to articles against Central Pacific being shown to certain persons; copy letter June 7, 1876; "the hardest fight by a hundred times;" witness thinks it possible that in every letter there is something he did write, 3739. Witness favored return of some of the California members and was opposed to others, 3739, 3740. Was it Mr. Piper who was objectionable? part of letter dated June 12, 1876; —— "should be defeated at almost any cost," 3740. Central Pacific money would not be used; and was not, to witness' knowledge; part of letter dated July 26, 1876; witness favored paying expenses of a party of southern men on a trip to California; would be a legitimate and proper expenditure, 3741. Part of letter dated November 15, 1876; as to meetings with Tom Scott; as to construction of Colorado River Bridge, 3742. As to rent paid by Central Pacific or Southern Pacific; part of letter of March 7, 1877; 3743. What is meant by "fixing up" a committee, 3743, 3744. A change in the "make-up" of the committee, 3744. Copy letter, dated October 13, 1887, from witness to commission; subject, compensation for mails on aided roads; 3744, 3745. Copy letter of March 20, 1877; who was the Senator from Florida? 3745. Senator Conover was a friend of the enterprise, 3745, 3746. Letter as to choice of United States Senator from California; who was the man suggested as one who "will be friendly?" 3746. Copy letter of April 20, 1877, as to Los Angeles and Independence road, 3746, 3747. That road bought by the Western Development Company; from Senator Jones, of Nevada, 3747. Wanted him "to help us with our Central Pacific and Northern Pacific sinking fund bill in Congress;" what this meant, 3747, 3748. Witness can not supply blanks in the letters, 3748. Copy letter, May 7, 1877; "the Florida Senator," 3749. What witness meant by "don't go any money on him;" the allusion to $70,000 being tied up; the sinking-fund bill referred to, 3750. Copy letter dated May 15, 1877; Scott's "open highway," 3751. "Senator ——, of Kansas," gets a letter; "good fellows, but mean business," 3752. As to statement in letter October 29, 1877, that Central Pacific had not earned its dividend, 3752, 3753. Personnel of railroad committee; "a different one promised me," 3753. "A good many strikers in Washington;" as to "doing battle with the whole human race;" explanation, 3754, 3755. Opposition to the Thurman bill withdrawn; buying votes in Congress not beneficial to anybody, 3755. To get legislation this session must "pay more than it is worth," 3755, 3756. "Annoyed by the Washington business;" "matters never looked worse in Washington," 3756. A letter printed without signature; its introduction objected to by Mr. Cohen, 3757. Allusion to anonymous letters, 3758. If anonymous it would not be read, 3758, 3759. The reading of the letter continued, 3759. Witness does not recall the letter, 3759, 3760. As to suggestions from ex-Senator Pomeroy, 3760. The Santa Monica road, 3760, 3761. Floating bonds; the purchase of the Santa Monica a legitimate business transaction, 3761. "Senator Mitchell not for us," 3761, 3762. "Good nature" v. "spot cash," 3762, 3763. Scott's promises; sinking-fund bills, 3763. "This Congress" an "agrarian camp," 3763, 3764. Object of the Thurman bill; Washington filled with lobbyists, 3764. The credit of the company injured; the ingratitude of Congress, 3765. The business distasteful and repugnant, 3765, 3766. How the payments to assistants were made; as to Mr. Isaac E. Gates; his connection with the company, 3766. Attends to general expenses, 3766, 3767. Mr. Gates's word enough; the book-keeping in California, 3767. What the books of the Contract Company show, 3767, 3768. Land-grant bonds; disposition of the bonds, 3768. Their price, 3768, 3769. The amount of them received by witness; usually carried his personal matters in his hat, 3769. Contract with Mr. Crocker for construction of sections 31 to 138, 3769, 3770. Transfer to Contract Company of stock received by Central Pacific; amount; why did not Crocker keep it, 3770. Effect on the security to the United States of construction of Southern Pacific, 3770, 3771. Diversion of traffic by Central Pacific from Southern Pacific of New York business; very little effect on local business, 3771. Earning capacity of subsidized portion if separated, 3771, 3772. Suggestions requested from witness as to plan of settlement, 3772, 3773. Colton letters; handwriting of witness; his reference to the "agrarian" character of Congress; bought the Santa Monica road as cheap as he could, 3773. Rate of interest paid on moneys borrowed for construction, 3773, 3774. Premium on gold; financial standing of Huntington, Hopkins &

Co. when construction was begun; Mr. Stanford's financial condition; Mr. Crocker worth more than $200,000, 3774. Huntington's method of signing checks, 3774, 3775. Company expected to pay its debts to the Government in transportation; their policy toward the Indians, 3775. Government transportation expected to pay interest; effect of Government aid to competing lines; surprised at the course taken by the Government; completion of road on May 10, 1869; guaranty required by the Government for proper conditions, 3776. When was the road accepted? 3776, 3777. Decisions by the Court of Claims and the United States circuit court in California; why payment of the 5 per cent. was delayed; Central Pacific has fulfilled every obligation to the Government, 3777. Comparative cost of construction, 3777, 3778. Discount on Government bonds, 3778. Bonds bought back by Government at a premium; transfer of mails by Central Pacific because of shorter haul; claim for service on non-aided roads about $2,000,000; loss of interest on moneys retained, 3779. Decision of the courts in favor of company as to $2,000,000 claims, 3779, 3780. Issue of land-grant bonds; division of these bonds by Contract Company not as dividends, 3780. Deposit of Central Pacific stock with Contract Company, 3780, 3781. Mr. Crocker had assumed an indebtedness; financial condition of Contract Company after fulfilling contract; effect of branch roads upon main line; no dividends declared until completion of road, 3781. All proceeds from bonds used in construction, 3781, 3782. As to amount of Central Pacific stock which witness and associates received from Contract Company; was it $13,000,000 each; legal expenses of Central Pacific compared with those of roads in England, 3782. Effect upon aided roads of construction of other aided roads; not expedient to increase rates on Central Pacific, 3783. Aid rendered to the Canadian Pacific by Canadian government, 3783, 3784. Effect upon Central Pacific; the route; Canadian Pacific's arrangement with our Government, 3784. Its competition with Central Pacific in Government business, 3784, 3785. Central Pacific paid for carrying mails less than Baltimore and Ohio; a call for official data on this subject; 20 per cent. taken off the compensation of aided roads, 3785. Railroad Commissioners' statement as to diversion of business from Central Pacific; advantages of leasing Central Pacific to Southern Pacific, 3786. Object of the lease, 3786, 3787. As to recent short sale of Central Pacific and Union Pacific stock; relations of Central Pacific with Pacific Mail Company; payment to Pacific Mail not a subsidy, 3787. Witness a director in Pacific Mail, 3787, 3788. Six hundred tons of tonnage reserved; paid for even if not used, 3788. Amount paid about $90,000 monthly; class of freight protected, 3789. Without such arrangement freight diverted by Pacific Mail from Europe to Aspinwall, 3789, 3790. The Southern Pacific as a freight line. House Bill No. 4060 and the Holman amendment; employment of Mr. Chittenden in 1871; 4022. Quotations from Mr. Chittenden's testimony, 4022, 4023. Nothing paid to members of Congress to influence votes on Holman amendment; difference with Mr. Chittenden as to compensation. 4023. Witness was examined before Poland committee, 4023, 4024. Probably had counsel present, 4024. Everybody dropped in bills about Pacific roads, 4024, 4025. As to Crédit Mobilier disclosures, 4025. Cost of construction of Central Pacific, 4025, 4026. Former testimony of witness as to amount of Central Pacific stock owned by him; does not remember it, 4026. Mr. Hopkins attended to everything, 4026, 4027. When dividends were paid, 4027. Who offered to sell the Colton letters? 4027, 4028. Employment of Mr. Norwood, 4028. Sidney Dillon not interested in Oregon Short Line construction contract; copy letter, witness to Mr. Norwood, 4029. Not a mistake to charge the Norwood bill against Central Pacific; a correction as to stock; was there a distribution? 4030. May have been owner of one-quarter of Contract and Finance Company, 4030, 4031. The Norwood matter again, 4031, 4032. The stub-check books, 4032, 4033. Probably destroyed, 4033. Nature of entries on stubs, 4034. Entries upon blotter, 4034. The blotter probably destroyed, 4034. Limit of time for current accounts; scheme of Thomas A. Scott, 4035. Space can be better utilized than in storing dead matter, 4035, 4036. Sure he paid Mr. Chittenden $10,000; 4036. No money paid him except for services rendered, 4036, 4037. Suggestions of settlement, per letter dated October 11, 1887; 4153, 4154.

Became a director of Union Pacific at Sage's request; not present at consolidation meeting, 400. A director for only a year, 401.
KEISEL FREDERICK G., testimony of:—
Adams & Keisel Salt Co.; 2232. Conditions of contract with Union Pacific, 2232, 2233. Bathing resort at Syracuse; other bidders; the bathing resort to be established, 2233. Advantage to Union Pacific, 2233. Price paid for salt; no rebates allowed; length of haul, 2234. Amount of salt delivered under contract, 2234, 2235. Rates on salt; negotiations with Denver and Rio Grande, 2235. Competition with Lyman & Wallace, 2235, 2236. Effect on Ogden of interstate commerce bill, 2236. Plan of settlement; extension and reasonable rate of interest, 2236, 2237. Would enable them to extend their feeders, 2237. Effect upon rates; just as favorable to community, if territory opened by other companies, 2237, 2238.
KIMBALL, THOMAS L., testimony of:
General traffic manager Union Pacific Railway, 1015. His duties; has charge of business arrangements for procuring traffic, local and through; of rebates, and also pool arrangements; constructive mileage, adjusted by the auditing department, 1016. His department embraces the freight, passenger, coal, and stone business, 1017. Enumeration of the departments of the road, 1018. An officer of Union Pacific since 1871; duties of general passenger and ticket agent; ticket agents as solicitors of business; had power to issue passes, 1040. To whom they were issued, 1041. Class of passes issued by general manager; general passenger traffic from 1871 to 1880; 1041. Passenger rates in 1871, about an average 7¼ cents; special rates, to whom given; accounting for passes, 1042. His special duties as passenger agent; canvassed territory in which new branch roads were proposed; defended policy of company by writing for the press, and by explanation to members of the legislature, 1043. Wrote for press in defense of company's charges for freight and passengers; employed to defeat hostile legislation, 1044, 1045. Publication of agent's articles not paid for; free transportation given to editors, 1045. Railroad methods of defeating legislation; only argument used; who were employed to argue, 1046, 1047. No knowledge that they used money, 1047. Gave them general instructions, 1048. Did not authorize or permit the use of any other means than argument; members of the legislature generally get passes; an "anti-monopoly" member, witness' definition of; passes to others issued on request of members of the legislature, 1049, 1050. No rebates at request of members; no improper means used to influence legislation; has influenced nominations and the election of members, 1050, 1051. His individual expenditure of money for that purpose; none expended by the company; no promises of position in company's service used, 1051. Participation in local elections; the company's employés free to vote; no members retained as attorneys, 1052. No hostile local or State legislation from 1871–'80, except the provision in Nebraska State constitution of 1875, prohibiting the Union Pacific from exercising the right of eminent domain in the State of Nebraska, 1053. Copy of that provision; effect of this prohibition; company paid double or treble for lands wanted for Missouri River bridge approach; has delayed acquisition of right of way, 1054, 1055. All Nebraska branches built since that prohibition in force; chief embarrassment in Omaha; money might have been used to influence legislation without witness' knowledge; passes to members, a general practice among railways,

1055, 1056. His duties as assistant general manager from 1880–'84; special passenger rates from 1880–'84; 1056. Not different from rates between 1871 and 1880; applicable to more classes; freight rates on branch lines higher than on main line, 1880–'84; 1057. Detailed statement of local passenger tariffs in 1880; 1058. Why tariffs on branch lines higher than on main line; did not result in discrimination in their favor, 1059, 1060. Constructive mileage defined; introduction of constructive mileage system in 1879 or 1880; 1060. Table of allowances in 1880, or when branch line opened for business; "arbitraries" defined; changes in rates, 1061. Witness responsible for the rates and for changes in them; illustrations; the Denver Pacific, 1062. The Oregon Short Line; improvement in main and branch lines since 1880, about the same, 1063, 1064. The conditions considered in fixing rates of constructive mileage, 1064, 1065. Illustration, the Denver and Rio Grande; constructive mileage, a legitimate compensation to branch lines, 1065, 1066. Constructive mileage not new; comparative cost of traffic on main and branch lines; his knowledge of the population on branch lines, when rates were fixed, 1066, 1067. Union Pacific makes money by operation of constructive mileage, 1067. Statement of amounts of constructive mileage allowances by Union Pacific to auxiliary lines, and by lines east of Missouri River to Union Pacific and its auxiliary lines for month of January, 1887; Union Pacific pays to auxiliary lines about $166,000 a year, 1068. Meaning of term "auxiliary line;" witness would make such constructive-mileage allowances if branch lines were independent corporations; "constructive mileage" with the Denver and Rio Grande, 1069, 1070. "Arbitraries" allowed to foreign roads; to the Northern Pacific; to other roads, 1070; "constructive-mileage" advantages that are not included in the statement; memorandum in relation to constructive-mileage allowances, January, 1887; 1072, 1073. Shows estimated balance of profit under the constructive-mileage rule in favor of Union Pacific, $297,982.16, for the year 1887; 1073. Does not contribute a cent to support branches; without branches the Union Pacific would be bankrupt, 1074. The strict mileage basis would result disastrously; advantages of constructive mileage to branches; present and future benefits to main line of branch system, 1075, 1076. Trans-continental business now divided between four or five competing trunk roads; Union Pacific now sustained by branch-line business; development of branch-line system begun in 1871–'72; profits to stockholders less since branch system was developed; "arbitraries" defined; difference between "arbitraries" and "constructive mileage;" companies with which there was an arbitrary rate, 1077, 1078. Why Denver, South Park and Pacific is treated as a local road; length of road an element in arranging constructive mileage; volume of business another element, 1078. Discussion of the rate allowed Echo and Park City; of rate allowed Omaha and Republican Valley, 1079. Branch lines entitled to 50 per cent. per mile more than main lines; only a legitimate division of the through rate, 1080. Was assistant general manager from the fall of 1880 to the fall of 1884; rebates, 1122, 1123. Fixed by witness, in the absence of the general manager; competition, the basis from competing territory; basis of rates from local territory; why rebate rates private, 1123. Necessity of rebates; how determined; rebates varying with competition; rebates in local territory where there is no competition, how applied, 1124, 1125. No rebates on ore or bullion to individual shippers, not smelters or dealers or samplers; why lower rates given on shipments of ore to Denver than to Pueblo; rates to grain shippers determined by competition; Omaha and Council Bluffs elevators, 1125. All elevator business in Omaha controlled by Himebaugh, Merriam & Co.; an allowance in their favor of 1 cent for use of their storage plant; an additional rebate to Omaha elevator, 1126, 1127. It goes to the seller of grain; length of existence of rebate system to Omaha elevator; ceased when interstate law took effect, 1127. Considerations governing allowance of rebates on shipments of cattle; in the case of small shippers no recent cases of preferences to shippers, 1128. No Eveners' Association on Union Pacific; what such an association is; how applied to cattle shippers; the shipper's consent ordinarily obtained, 1129. Pools; do not affect individual shippers; complaints that rebates to larger shippers shut out small dealers, 1130. The Union Stock Yards Company of Omaha; no rebates given it by the road; the yardage charge; unloading of stock, 1131. Controlled by shipper, 1131, 1132. The Standard Oil Company; rebates allowed it; all sorts of rates; rates to other coal companies; prior to the payment of rebates, oil pretty much all went by ocean to Pacific coast, 1132. Preference to Standard Oil Company; embarrassing effect on smaller dealers; allowance to Standard Oil Company on account of car service furnished by it; return of such cars without charge, 1133, 1134. For empty tank cars, a charge of $10 to $20; cars sometimes returned free, sometimes not; private rate allowed the Standard Oil Company; also the Consolidated Tank Line and the Continental Oil Companies, 1134, 1135. Standard Oil Company has controlling interest in both; purchase of the Continental by the Standard; discrimination would assist the Standard Oil Company in fighting competition, 1135. The Standard Oil Company ship over 90 per cent. of all the oil, 1135, 1136. Policy governing the road in regard to such shippers; car service account not a rebate, 1136. The pool statement; copy of pooling agreement of April 7, 1879; and amendment of June, 1879; 1137. Amendment of September 1, 1879; copy of second tripartite agreement, in effect April 1, 1885; 1138. Copy of third agreement, of October 13, 1882; in effect November 1, 1882; 1138, 1139. Copy of agreement of October 1, 1879; copy of agreement of October 21, 1882; 1140. Copy of agreement made January 24, 1884; 1140, 1141. Colorado-Utah Common Points Association; agreement made January 24, 1884, 1141. Nebraska traffic agreement; agreement of December 1, 1881; 1141, 1142. Montana traffic agreement; agreement of February 23, 1883; Oregon Traffic Association; agreement of December 1, 1884; 1143. California pools; first agreement, 1143, 1144. Second agreement; third agreement, 1144. Fourth agreement, 1144–1146. Mileage rate from April, 1880, to July, 1887; 1146. Instructions relating to freight and passenger rates, 1146, 1147. Statement concerning Territorial population called for, 1150. Copy witness' letter to freight claim agent as to $40,000 rebate allowed Omaha and Grant Company; the published rates on ore and bullion, 1175. Difference between special rates on ores, 1175, 1176. Why claim papers marked "personal;" rebate accounts private; interest of Union Pacific in property of Omaha and Grant Company; rebates to Wells and Neiman; rates allowed them; directors or employés not interested in that firm, 1177. Chicago Lumber Company; Ames and Dillon's interest in Omaha and Grant Company; President Adams a stockholder in the Argentine Smelting Company, 1178. Directions given that no favors be shown because of such interest; the Northwest Forwarding Company; its rebate on salt, why allowed; witness' interest in the Utah Central; Utah Forwarding Company, same concern as the Northwest Fowarding Company; their rebate on freight in the nature of a commission, 1180. Cost of coke, 1180, 1181. Other companies engaged in the coke or salt business; Adams & Keisel, Eldon Coal Mining Company, rebate to; La Plata Mining and Smelting company; Boston and Colorado Smelting Company, in Butte, Mont., 1181. Large shipments of low-grade ore for Senator Hill at lowest rates; Horn Silver Mining Company, rebates to; a cut rate refused on a large shipment of bullion, which subsequently went over the Rio Grande; rebate to C. W. Collins & Co., 1182. Their rebate a part of their construction contract with company; "various stations, free transportation," 1183. Union Pacific coal department, 1183, 1184. Its rebate on coal; Swan Land and Cattle Company, 1184. Philadelphia Smelting Company at Ketchum, Idaho, 1184, 1185. Rocky Mountain News Company; rebates allowed to it, 1185. Was it a preference as well as a rebate? 1185, 1186. Rebates not usually granted except on individual applications; Clyde Mill Company, rebates to, 1186. Result of refusal to allow Horn Silver Mining Company a rebate on 3,200 tons of bullion shipped over the Rio Grande road, 1190. Differences between overcharges and rebates, 1192. Earnings made up after making deductions for rebates, constructive mileage, etc., 1192, 1193. Sums paid out as rebates regarded as trust moneys, 1193. Gross earnings and expenses have nothing to do with the published tariff, 1193, 1194. Railroad settlements, illustration of; the "refund of freight earnings" book, 1194. What it shows; difficulty of distinguishing between "overcharges" and "rebates," 1195. Estimated cost of getting out statement for Commission in regard to rebates, $15,000 to $18,000, 1198. Rebates and pool payments, while in hands of company, regarded as trust funds; a large part of entire earnings arises from pools, 1199. Copy of lease of Union Pacific with Omaha and Grant Smelting and Refining Company, 1201, 1202. To whom rebates are allowed, 1202. How constructive-mileage accounts are made up, 1203, 1204. "Movement and distribution of freight earnings" book; its relation to the constructive-mileage account, 1205. Monthly settlements, 1205, 1206. Explanation of the entries, 1206. Detailed statement of constructive-mileage settlements for January, 1887, 1206, 1207. Special passenger rates from 1880 to 1887; 1360, 1361. To excursion parties, 1361. rates, 1362. Passes, to whom allowed; passes to live-stock companies and firms; also to elevator men, merchants, and millers, 1363. Agreement to restrict the issue of free or reduced transportation adopted October 29, 1884, at a meeting of general managers, 1364, 1365. Order of general superintendent concerning passes, dated December 23, 1886; instructions from general superintendent as to taking up passes, dated April 4, 1887, 1366, 1367. Memorandum of car mileage paid Standard Oil Company and Continental Oil Company from 1882 to 1886, 1368. Rebate to Anaconda Mining and Smelting Works, 1368, 1369. Transcontinental pool; explanation of item, $6,123.35; of rebate to Omaha and Grant Smelting and Refining Company; other refiners who got same rebate, 1369. Effect of rebate, 1369, 1370. Complaint of Senator Hill's company; Jenning's rebate of $24; all shippers treated alike; the fact that such rebates were paid generally understood, 1370, 1371. Failure to make application for rebate before shipment; only remedied by application of shipper afterward; explanation of rebate on ore to Omaha and Grant Smelting and Refining Company, 1371, 1372. Unless Union Pacific allowed the rebate, business would go to other lines; other rebates on ore and bullion; item, Pacific mail subsidy; how it is divided, 1372. Branch lines not interested, 1372, 1373. Explanation of rebate to Murphy, Grant & Co.; who compose the firm, 1373. Same rebates to other shippers; explanation of rebate to A. Hanauer; of rebate to Standard Oil Company; same rebate to Continental Oil Company, 1374. How business of Standard Oil Company divided between the railroads, 1374, 1375. Pool on Utah business; rebate to A. Hanauer, 1375. Explanation of rebate to Utah Forwarding Company, 1375, 1376. Of rebate to R. S. Van Tassell, 1376. Of rebate to N. W. Wells, 1376, 1377. Same rebates allowed to his competitors; contractors for Indian supplies familiar with rebate rates, 1377. Rebate obtained after letting of contract, 1377, 1378; explanation of refund to Central Pacific; of rebate to S. R. Howell & Co.; all lumber dealers had same rebate, 1378. Stock of Pacific Improvement Company, 2661, 2662. Terms of the contract for construction from Delta to boundary; completion of work from Delta to State line, 2662. Account of Pacific Improvement Company with Central Pacific, dated December 31, 1886; 2662, 2663. Account showing bonds due June 1, 1887; 2663. Consideration for construction to Delta, the control of Oregon and California; how obtained; terms of the contract and the compensation allowed Pacific Improvement Company determined by men who were principal stockholders in both companies, 2664, 2665. The price paid; a very good trade for Central Pacific; actual cost of construction; bonds issued to Pacific Improvement Company, 2665. Loan from sinking fund to that company, 2665, 2666. Offer to pay back the loan; $16,000,000 mortgage of October, 1886; probable effect of its foreclosure, 2666, 2667. Would leave road from Sacramento to Ogden without terminal facilities; lines consolidated with the Central Pacific, 2667, 2668. Interest of officers in the short lines before consolidation; by whom they were constructed, 2668. Loan of portion of sinking fund to Western Development Company, 2668, 2669. What was paid for construction from Sacramento to Ogden; condition of Contract and Finance Company at final settlement, 2669. Owed several millions at time of completion of road, 2669, 2670. Created for purpose of better constructing the road; witness and associates received about $50,000,000 profits; personal liability of stockholders, 2670. Effect of the law on investors, 2670, 2671. Relation of Central Pacific to Government, 2729, 2730. United States vs. Union Pacific, to compel an accounting as to disposition of United States bonds; Court of Claims case, with like purpose, 2730. Central and Western Pacific Railroads; memorandum of receipts from all sources (except original contributions by promoters) to December 31, 1869; total, $47,889,000; Central Pacific never handled Western Pacific bonds, 2731. Counties authorized to subscribe aid to railroads,

2731–2733. Aid given to roads prior to consolidation; the $600,000 subscription of San Francisco County, 2732. County aid to Central Pacific, 2732, 2733. Aid for roads that never were built, 2733. Subscriptions of other counties to railroads, 2733, 2734. Construction of road from San José to Ogden, at cost, roundly, of $55,600 per mile; various estimates of cost per mile; Government only interested to extent of its grants, 2734. Company authorized to use the entire grant if necessary, and entitled to any unexpended balance, 2734, 2735. Position assumed for sake of argument: If company must account, as agent, to Government, and pay over all receipts in excess of reasonable cost of construction, the proceeds of United States and first-mortgage bonds were less than such cost; position taken by company: Government aid granted on condition that the road be constructed, and, on completion of work, Government not entitled to an accounting; if company bound to account to Government as agent, United States aid was insufficient, and Government should make good the deficit, 2735. Relations of the company and the Government as viewed by the commission, 2735, 2736. When aid was given, compensation for service was estimated to be sufficient to pay debt, 2736. Condition of road at passage of Thurman act and subsequently; important competing lines built, and business fell off on Central Pacific; percentage on through business now about 25 per cent.; advantage of control of Southern Pacific, 2737. Terms of lease of Central to Southern Pacific, 2737, 2738. Construction of Oregon and California; advantage of small roads to main line; Southern Pacific to pay interest on Central's Government indebtedness and payments under Thurman act, 2738. Commissioner Anderson's statement of public impression as to real cause of inability of Central Pacific to meet obligations, 2738, 2739. Necessity for Commission to examine the books; money all expended in construction; amount of stock not necessarily related to cost of construction, 2739. Company's books open for examination by Commission; necessity of haste in construction of Central Pacific; not desired to throw the books open to the public, 2740. Books of the construction companies, 2740, 2741. Objections raised to leases to Central Pacific; protest by chairman of Commission against private examination of the books, 2741. Not necessary to expose company's affairs to rivals, 2741, 2742. Commission bound to make public all evidence bearing on the issue, 2742. Publicity of examination demanded by Commission, 2742, 2743. Extent of examination permitted by company; witness to consult counsel, 2743. Commission to decide on pertinency of evidence, 2743, 2744. Commission claim right to publish examination of books, etc., 2744. Books will show no diversion of funds, 2744, 2745. No secrets in them; position of the company that of plaintiffs, 2745. Commission not governed by rules of evidence, 2745, 2746. Question of permitting examination of books postponed, 2746, 2747. Witness excused for purposes of consultation with counsel, 2747. Expenditures from 1840 to 1869 for Government transportation exceeded $8,000,000 per annum. Transportation rates at that time, 2750. Reasons for supposing same rates were to be paid company, 2750, 2751. Rates fixed arbitrarily by Government; decision in case of Union Pacific as to rates fixed by Post-Office Department, 2751. Grant to Northern Pacific in 1864 unjust to Central Pacific and Union Pacific, 2751, 2752. Greater aid extended to other roads; grant to Northern Pacific in 1864; Central Pacific should be compensated for injury done by assisting other roads, 2752, 2753. A case of benefits to the Government; values created by construction of road, 2753. Companies to be dealt with in a spirit of justice and liberality, 2753, 2754. Completion of road in advance of limit anticipated by Government; self-protection the company's object in hastening completion, 2754, 2755. Another object in view suggested—increase of earnings, 2754. Company's first mortgage could have built the road; Government aided portion of Central Pacific not the only source of the profits distributed in dividends from 1870 to 1876; another reason for expedition—the securing of the land grant; business from the Comstock lode, 2755. Value of Government land grants, per report of company's land agent, 2755, 2756. Largely depreciated by failure of Comstock lode and Government delay in giving title; benefits conferred in development of country; diversion of business by act of Government, 2756. The company willing to surrender the lands at a Government valuation, 2756, 2757. Central Pacific a pioneer railroad; willing to let Government have road on certain conditions, 2757. Government has no claim on directors, 2757, 2758. Disposition of Government bonds; road mortgaged ahead of construction, 2758. What the bonds sold for in gold, 2758, 2759. How their value is estimated; bonds all sold after completion of road; borrowing on bonds, 2759. Bonds not kept a week, through pressure for money,

2759, 2760. Millions of bonds pledged in advance; individual notes given, secured by collateral; high prices for labor and material, 2760. Price of ties, 2760, 2761. Rails, all American; how transported; rate on large shipments, 2761. Filling and grading done by Contract and Finance Company, 2761, 2762. Ox-teams hauling ties over mountains; roads kept clear during storms by moving teams, 2762. Tunneling during the winter, 2762, 2763. Other difficulties in going over the mountains; large fills originally covered with wooden trestles; Government aid increased from $16,000 to $49,000 a mile, at a point 7 miles east of Sacramento; character of country between seventh and twenty-first miles, 2763. Fixing the base of the Sierras, 2763, 2764. Comparative cost of first 7 and second 7 miles; the base of the mountain, extra aid given on portion commencing at, 2764. Discussing as to where it commenced, 2764, 2765. All the officers who made geological examination agreed on point of commencement; the base properly fixed geographically and geologically, 2765. Cost of construction from Sacramento to Ogden, 2765, 2766. All the money used up in construction; actual cost to Ogden more than $48,000,000; 2766. Proceeds of individual notes used, 2766, 2767. Interest on individual notes repaid by companies; method of conducting Western Development Company, 2767. Not the same with regard to Contract Company; separate accounts with Central Pacific and Contract and Finance Companies; no more interest charged than paid; further testimony to be submitted by company, 2768. Method of ascertaining proceeds of Government bonds and other aid, 2769. Signing testimony by witnesses, 2769, 2770. Improvement of road after completion, 2770. Done by Contract Company, 2770, 2771. Cost of construction at completion in May, 1869, estimated by witness at about $47,880,000; as to statement of profit and loss January 1, 1870, 2771. Interest account of 1870 and 1871 compared, 2771, 2772. Issuance in October, 1870, of land-grant bonds amounting to $9,153,000; how disposed of, 2772. The books will show, 2772. "Driving the last spike;" through business at completion of road, 2773. Bonds on which interest was paid for 1869, 2773, 2774. Net earnings for 1869, $2,677,290.66; was not road then able to meet all its fixed charges, 2774. Deductions to be made from gross earnings, 2774, 2775. Value of the stock in 1869; in 1871 bought some at 13 cents on the dollar; buying up the old stock before completion of road at as low as 10 cents on the dollar, 2775. Purchases of stock to settle blackmail suits, 2775, 2776. Purchase of Stewart's stock at par, 2776. Other purchases for various reasons without reference to intrinsic value of stock, 2776, 2777. Profits arising from construction of road; method of dividing stock, 2777. Stock unsalable at time of division, 2777, 2778. Reiteration of witness's statement that stock had no intrinsic value at time these purchases were made; faith in the success of the road, 2778. Unable to sell stock for 20 cents in 1873; 2778, 2779. Suits against the company; complaint in the Brannan suit, 2779. Reason for paying $400 to $500 a share to settle so-called blackmail suits, 2779, 2780. Suits scattered through a series of years; character not damaged by scurrilous allegations; San Joaquin bonds issued to Western Pacific prior to consolidation with Central Pacific, 2780. Attorneys in the suits by the county for return of the stock or its value, 2780, 2781. Other suits against Central Pacific; Mr. Chittenden, the attorney in the Hain and Winchester suit; reason for questions as to suits, 2781. Negotiations to sell; Huntington and Hopkins willing to sell at 20; acquisition of San Francisco and San José; disappointed with regard to Asiatic business; effect of protective tariff on cost to company of coal and iron, 2782. Manner of consolidation and reason therefor; witness president of various roads; general terms regarding interchange of stock, 2783. Consolidation stock equaled issued stock of constituent companies, 2783, 2784. Article 5 of consolidation agreement, provisions of; witness a large stockholder of constituent companies, 2784. Can not tell what consideration was paid to constituent companies for stock, 2784, 2785. Or what arrangements were made with contractor; contract for construction of Western Pacific Company sublet; extract from Western Pacific Company's minutes, recording request for rescission of contract, 2785. Method of payment for construction of Central Pacific, 2786. Made negotiations which gained for Central Pacific control of Western Pacific, but can not recall details of contract, 2786, 2787. All stock put into Contract and Finance Company; when assets distributed stockholders paid the debts, 2787. Central Pacific construction subsequent to consolidation, 2787, 2788. Production of all contracts made with construction companies required by commission, 2788, 2789. No contract had which was not legal and proper; pecuniary interest of directors, 2789. Acted in interest of each of the companies, 2789, 2790. Contract with Development Company on

CONSTRUCTIVE MILEAGE:
First introduced into Pacific system in 1879 or 1880; 1060. Definitions of, 1061, 1440. Mr. Adams's explanation of, 104. Governor Stanford's explanation of, 2473. How it differs from an "arbitrary" rate, 1077, 1078. A universal rule, 109, 3591. Not universal, but a very common practice, 861, 862. Not a new principle, 1056. A true principle for the proper conduct of a railroad, 638, 639. Propriety and equity of the principle, 1444, 1445. Object of, 980. How it could become an abuse, 850, 851. Companies with which there was an arbitrary rate, 1077, 1078.
Allowance of, by Union Pacific to branch roads, 105. Approved by Government directors, 105, 106, 861. Effect on Government's 25 per cent., 105, 612, 613, 851, 859, 860, 980, 2481. Never intended to diminish payments under Thurman act, 615, 851, 862. How it might defeat Thurman Act, 642. Effect of, under Thurman act, 612. Not a diversion of earnings in their favor, 108. A legitimate compensation, 1065, 1066. Gives them a fair share of earnings, 1670. Only a legitimate division of the through rate, 1080. Branch lines entitled to higher rates per mile than main lines, 1066, 1080, 1444, 1445, 2073. Union Pacific pays to auxiliary lines about $166,000 a year (estimated), 1068.
Effect on main line, 2073, 2074. Benefit to main line, 1067, 2480. Benefits to branch-lines and to main line, 106, 1067, 1075, 1076, 1429, 1430. Branch-line business, the most profitable business done by main line, 640, 642.
Branches entitled to, and their allowances (from report of Government directors), 604. Reasonableness of these allowances, 851. To Echo and Park City, ridiculously small, 859, 860. To Denver and South Park, should be higher, 860. To Utah Northern, not extraordinary, 861. Discussion of rate allowed Echo and Park City, and Omaha and Republican Valley, 1079.
Table of allowances in 1880, or when branch line opened for business, 1061. Improvement in main and branch lines since 1880 about the same, 1063, 1064. Ratio of allowances has remained about the same since 1880; 1063, 1064.

The Kansas Pacific Pool Agreement of April 24, 1878; 451, 1696. Copy of same, 162–166.
Its object, 178. To reduce amount of outstanding indebtedness, 429. Effect of consolidation exactly the reverse, 429.
Its original purpose, to retire at a scaled rate all liens subsequent to first mortgage and Government lien, and substitute an issue of stock, 453.
Statement of the persons interested, 143, 646, 647. And the securities covered, 143. Sage not interested until it was to be closed up, 345, 347. Mr. Villard not personally interested, 428.
F. L. Ames paid in $100,000, and got consols with Kansas Pacific stock thrown in, 686.
E. H. Baker had $15,000 interest in the pool; what he got for it, 738.
Elisha Atkins' interest in Kansas Pacific in 1879; acquired through pool, 754.
How the prices in the pool agreement were fixed, 172–174; 454.
Rates for income bonds, 458. Gould fixed the price at what he considered a fair figure, 458. Had over $2,000,000 of them himself, 458. As to his purchase of stamped income bonds, 463. Why he bought them; what they covered; other holders of stamped incomes, 464.

Purchase by Sage from Gould of one-sixth of the securities, formerly representing the Saint Louis interest, for $200,250; 361–363, 461, 502, 503.
Another purchase by Sage from Gould of Kansas Pacific stock and bonds, 363–365.
The withdrawal of the Kansas Pacific stock from the pool, 168, 169, 171, 224, 272, 431, 432, 460, 654, 655.
Valued in the pool at 12½ cents, 171.
Delivered to Gould, Ames, and Dillon; authority for such action, 431.
Through the pool Gould and associates acquired large interests in Kansas Pacific stock and bonds and Arkansas Valley and Leavenworth bonds, 175.
Pool profits to the individuals interested, 217–219, 686.
Mr. Gould's profit on Kansas Pacific stock in consolidation, $3,500,000; 686. Copy Gould's account of Kansas Pacific pool, 497. Copy his journal entries concerning same, 497–501.

KANSAS PACIFIC CONSOLIDATION—Continued.
Summary of the original pooling scheme; $17,000,000 of bonded debt to be funded into $4,855,300 in stock, 455.
This plan abandoned and the consolidated mortgage made, 454, 455.

Consolidated mortgage:
Drawn by Judge Usher, 144, 455, 1697. Gould's connection therewith, 1696, 1697.
Submitted to Artemas H. Holmes, 144.
Gould and Sage were the trustees, 345.
Its object, 435.
General statement of its provisions, 569, 570.
Method of scaling securities in consolidation, 456, 457. Who fixed the rates of exchange, 161, 162, 346, 350, 1698. The committee fixed the rates for branch-line securities with the owners, 350.
Mr. Sage's duty as trustee under the mortgage, 349–350. His duty as a member of the pool committee, 350. The persons prominently interested, 162. Rate for Arkansas Valley bonds, 167.
Rates not the same as those in the pool agreement, 459.
An explanation asked for the difference between the amount of pool securities at commutation rates and amount which mortgage states was to be given for them, 532–534, 561, 565, 650, 651. An apparent preference of $933,000; 534, 565.
Mr. Gould says that the holders of pool securities got no preference, 534. Gould never knew of the discrepancy, 533. Thinks it probably arose from advances made by him to pay interest on Denver extension bonds, 533, 534. This theory untenable, 534. Perhaps the lawyers got the difference, 533. Judge Usher thinks there was no special advantage obtained, 1701.
How the agreement to give $3,400,000, consols, for the pool securities was arrived at, 651, 652, 1698–1700. Judge Usher got instructions only from Gould, 1700.
Mr. Sage's recollection of the disposition of the $3,400,000 bonds issued to Dillon, Villard, and himself in payment for pool securities, 348, 349.
Exchange of old securities for consolidated bonds, 351, 352.
Copy article 22 of consolidated mortgage, 161, 547. Mr. Gould's understanding of its provision, 570. No bonds issued under it except those provided for by $3,400,000 contract, at other rates than those specified in article 23.
Provisions of article 23 for issue of $2,000,000 to Gould, to repay advances, 548, 549, 653.
Explanation of various issues of bonds—
One hundred and three bonds to Maxwell and Graves, for $75,000 first land-grant bonds, 549, 550.
One hundred and thirty bonds to Oliver Ames, for 755 shares Central Branch's stock, 550.
One hundred and seventeen bonds to R. Sage, for $112,315, coupon certificates.
Did not the prohibition of article 22, as to issuance of bonds to Kansas Pacific, apply as well to the successor company (Union Pacific Rwy.), 551.
Of issue of 160 bonds to Gould and Sage, trustees, for certain branch-line bonds; why at different rates from that in mortgage, 552.
Of other issues to Gould and Sage, 553.
Did not Gould receive rates different from the mortgage rate, 553.
Of issue of 1771 bonds to Gould, for bonds of Denver Pacific and of Denver and Boulder Valley, 565.
Article 24, as to different rates for branches east and west of the meridian of Denver, 168, 565, 566.
Issue of 2,000 bonds to Gould at 75; who fixed the rate, 566, 567, 595, 653, 777–780.
Mr. Sage not interested, 569.
Issue of 927 bonds to Gould in payment of Central Branch and Denver Pacific stock, 567.
Three million four hundred thousand dollars bonds to holders of pool securities under market rate, 778, 779.
Explanation of other issues of bonds at other than mortgage rates, 567, 568.
No overissue of bonds, 568, 570.
Class of credits given Union Pacific in bond account, 568, 569.
Article 4, as to proceeds of land sales applicable to interest, 568.
Explanation by Mr. Calef of entries in trustees' journal, 592–594.
Why Mr. Leighton received different rates from those in the mortgage, 594.
Copy agreement between Gould and Leighton, 594.
Account of trustees with Union Pacific; item of $927,000 consols charged to Union Pacific and delivered to Gould, 595, 596.

KANSAS PACIFIC CONSOLIDATION—Continued.
Some of the securities (for which the commutation rates were 30 and 50) have since been purchased at nearly par, 973.
The prohibition forbidding commutation except at mortgage rates evidently disregarded, 973, 974.
Statement of stocks and bonds owned by Union Pacific Rwy Co. held in the consolidated mortgage trust, December 31, 1882, 695.

In 1879 Gould anxious to consolidate Union Pacific and Kansas Pacific, but wanted better terms for Kansas Pacific, 660, 661. Mr. Dexter thought his terms unreasonable, 702–704, 739, 740.

Gould's purchase of Missouri Pacific, 505, 659, 1579, 1580, 1590, 1591. Paid Garrison $3,000,000 for 4,000 shares, 528, 529.
Object, to protect Kansas Pacific; Garrison paralleling Kansas Pacific, bought out by Gould, 508.
Gould's idea of another through road to Ogden, 505, 756. The true line across the continent, 505.
The proposed extension of Missouri Pacific would have destroyed Union Pacific, 509. And wiped out security of United States 510. Though tempted, Gould did not yield, 509, 510.
Effect of disclosure of fact of purchase, 506, 507.
Alarm of Union Pacific people, 659, 660, 740, 760, 813.
Interviews with other directors, 506, 507.
Consultations with Gould on his change of front, 662–664.
Gould forced to carry consolidation through, 483. Would have paid $1,000,000 rather than do so, 483. He felt "committed" to the consolidation, 509.
Names of men who urged Gould, 485, 486.
They had much larger interests in Union Pacific than in Kansas Pacific, 586, 587.
The meeting at Gould's house, January 14, 1880; 664, 704, 705.
Who were present, 664, 689.
A protracted discussion of terms, 665.
The concessions made by Gould, 705.
The preliminary paper agreeing to consolidation, 665, 706.
Substance of same, 486, 487, 507, 508.
In Mr. Dexter's handwriting, 667, 668.
Explanation of the signature "R. S.," 668.
Copy of agreement, 668. Errors therein, 668, 669, 706, 707.
Mr. Atkins signed it in Boston; was not present at the meeting, 757, 776, 777.
The paper recently found, 670, 708.
The Government not informed of the details, 708.
Mr. Baker's recollection of what took place, 740–742.
The situation of affairs in 1880; 690.
Possible results if consolidation had not taken place, 690.
In acceding to terms of consolidation, directors were controlled by fact that Gould had them "cornered," 685. Mr. Atkins does not think they were bulldozed, 759.
Gould in a position to dictate the terms of consolidation between Kansas Pacific and Union Pacific, 558. Did Gould dictate the terms, 777.

When consolidation was substantially agreed on, according to Mr. Sage, 357, 358.
Preparation of articles of consolidation, drawn by Judge Dillon, 157, 183, 184.
Gould's connection therewith, 484, 485.
Judge Usher's recollection of their preparation, 1702. Fears of an injunction, 1703.
With whom Dillon conferred, 184.
He had no personal knowledge of the value of the Kansas Pacific or Denver Pacific stock at the time, 184, 185.
Drew third article according to instructions, 185.
Knew that Gould and associates were interested in both properties, 185, 186.
Copy articles of consolidation, 307–310.
The letter to Humphreys & Dodge:

Copy thereof, 318.

What they were asked to do, 371, 476, 477, 704.
The persons who signed it, 371, 657.
Gould's connection therewith, 479.
Gould did not confer with John F. Dillon as to, 483, 484.

KANSAS PACIFIC CONSOLIDATION—Continued.
Why they were selected; what Mr. Atkins recollects about it, 754, 755.
Mr. Sage's acquaintance with them, 370, 371.
Gould has no knowledge that they made a careful examination of the question, 477, 478.
What considerations they should have gone into, 478, 479, 657, 658.
Their report, 372, 479.
Did they merely copy a form prepared for them, 479, 480.
Their suggestion as to the capital stock of the new company, the same that Gould had thought of, 479.
Copy of their report, 318, 319.
Sage did not know its tenor prior to the meeting, 372.
When did the directors know of its conclusions, 658, 659.
When Gould received their report, he was not in favor of consolidation, 482, 657.
Gould never saw the report, 583. Did not influence them, 583.
Submitted to John F. Dillon at or about the day of the consolidation, 373.

Suit to release the Denver Pacific stock:
Artemas H. Holmes requested by Sidney Dillon to bring the suit, 146, 205. His conversation with Judge Dillon, 147. With Jay Gould, 487. Gould had decided to put Denver Pacific stock into consolidation, his own $1,000,000 at 10 cents and the $3,000,000 trust stock at a valuation of $500,000; 488, 504. By the terms of the consolidation Denver Pacific stock was to be exchanged at par; Gould knew that, if freed, it was worth as much as Union Pacific Rwy. stock, 488, 490. Gould did not think it his duty as trustee to state to Mr. Holmes that the stock, if freed, was to be exchanged for Union Pacific Rwy. stock, 490.
The general object of the suit, 147, 186, 490, 505. What Mr. F. L. Ames knew of the suit, 671.
Mr. Dillon's letter to Gould and Sage, trustees, on January 17, 1880, and their reply on same day, 488, 489.
Summons dated January 17, 1880; 147, 148.
Mr. Dillon wanted the suit expedited, 148, 243, 244. Knew that, if freed, the stock would be worth as much as Union Pacific Rwy. stock, 206, 207. Mr. Sage does not think the suit was hurried through, 354, 355.
The complaint; its preparation, 489.
Copy Mr. Calef's verification, 490.
Verified and served January 20, 1880; 148.
Substance of its allegations, 148-150.
The answer:
Mr. Goodwin's talk with Mr. Sage, 243, 244, 353, 354. The disclosures made by trustees to their counsel, Mr. Goodwin, as to value of the Denver Pacific stock, 244, 245. Sage knew that the Denver Pacific stock, if freed, was worth whatever Union Pacific was, 358. Counsel for trustees ignorant of the fact that consolidation was impending, 243.
Verified by Gould on January 20, 1880, 489.
Served the same day, 148.
Substance of its provisions, 150.
Horace M. Ruggles agreed on as referee, 150, 244.
Justice Donohue refers the issues to Ruggles to try and determine; order dated January 20, 1880; 150.
Taking of proofs begun January 21, 1880; 151.
The witnesses examined, 151.
Testimony of Sidney Dillon, 180, 205, 207, 208. Denver Pacific stock worthless in the trust, but, if freed, and used for certain purposes it might be worth $200,000 or $300,000 to Kansas Pacific, 180, 181. Attempt to reconcile Mr. Dillon's statement as to value of Denver Pacific stock with the fact that the next day it was worth $3,000,000; 181. Mr. Dillon's explanation of his statement, 208, 209. Gould not informed of this testimony, 492.
Erasures in Mr. Calef's testimony as to Kansas Pacific earnings, 155, 293–295. The record as taken and as altered, 155, 156, 294, 295. Is the original or the corrected answer the true one, 156, 157, 294, 295.
The corrected answer true, 294, 295.
Does not recollect on what he based his testimony as to earnings, 297, 298
Case closed on January 22; 151.
Findings were drawn by the referee, 151.
Decree dated January 23, 1880, 151, 152. No opposition by counsel for trustees, 152.
Copy of decree, 152.
Result of the decree, 158.

KANSAS PACIFIC CONSOLIDATION—Continued.
Complaint of Albert S. Rosenbaum as to withdrawal of the Denver Pacific stock 247, 248, 256–258.
The investigation, by the State assembly judiciary committee, into Justice Donohue's action, 154.
Mr. Ham, the custodian of the Denver Pacific stock, after its release, 227. The stock in one certificate, 227. Details of its receipt by him, and of the circumstances connected with its subsequent conversion into Union Pacific stock, 228, 229. The Union Trust Company, the transfer agents, 229. The modus operandi of transfer; the new stock delivered next day; the largest certificate went to Gould, 231. Transfer at same time, of 10,000 shares to same parties; to whom the new certificates were delivered, 232. After paying parties interested for their securities, balance of stock retained in the Union Pacific treasury, 233. Loss of paper containing statement of the value of the securities to be paid for, 233. 234.
Mr. Calef's recollection of the receipt by Kansas Pacific of the Denver Pacific stock and its transfer to Gould, 290, 291.
Mr. Sage is not sure whether the Denver Pacific stock has been taken out of the trust or not, 352, 353.
The stock went to Kansas Pacific as an asset, and was used by Kansas Pacific to pay for the branch roads purchased from Gould and his associates, 152–154, 234–237.
The $3,000,000 stock went to Kansas Pacific, then to Union Pacific Rwy., in consolidation; a portion ($3,464,168.48) used to pay Gould, 274, 275, 557. The question of a trustee buying the trust securities, 355.
Mr. Sage does not recollect that he was informed, at the time of the suit, that the Denver Pacific stock was to go to Gould, 355.
Mr. Dillon's statement that the Denver Pacific stock was exchanged for Union Pacific Rwy. stock, 202, 203.
Union Pacific Rwy. could just as well have issued its own stock to pay Gould and other creditors, 557.
Gould and his associates gave full value for the Denver Pacific stock, 180.
Who arranged the terms of transfer? 236, 315.
Terms arranged between Gould and Kansas Pacific before consolidation, 315, 316.
Enumeration of the securities and their value, 236.
Copy letter, Oliver W. Mink, to Commission as to exchange of Denver Pacific stock, 305–307.
Mr. Mink states that Union Pacific Rwy. made a profit of $3,716,961.48 on the Denver Pacific stock, 314, 315.
How Kansas Pacific obtained its title to its Denver Pacific stock, 179.
By what authority did Kansas Pacific part with its title? 158–160, 268, 269.
Why the released stock was not exchanged with the trustees of the consolidated mortgage, instead of with Kansas Pacific, 491.
Why the proceeds of the released stock were not paid back to the trustees, 491, 492, 503–505.
They could get $500,000 for it, or nothing, 492, 503.
The trust received the benefit of $500,000, the mortgage being made for that much less, 556.
Denver Pacific stock valueless in case of foreclosure of mortgage, 582.
If decree had not been obtained, Denver Pacific would have been foreclosed, or the stock would have been put in at nominal price, 582.
Gould sold his $1,000,000 Denver Pacific stock to Kansas Pacific for $100,000, though, by consolidation, it was worth about $1,000,000; 177, 583.
By consolidation, Gould and associates got Union Pacific Rwy. stock for the Denver Pacific stock, which would not have been worth anything but for consolidation, 178.
Kansas Pacific would not have been worth ten cents, and Denver Pacific would not have been worth anything, but for consolidation, 179.

Meeting of directors of Union Pacific R. R., January 24, 1880; 512, 513.
Copy of the minutes, 307–311.

[Same] from February 1, 1880, to 1886; total, $561,329.32; 4309. (See also 4283.)
[Same] for land department, 4310.
Summary of, Union Pacific R. R. and Rwy. and Kansas Pacific Rwy., 1864–1886; total, $2,349,554.80; 4311.
Mr. Calhoun's report of annual amounts for Union Pacific R. R. and Rwy., for Denver Pacific Rwy. and Tel. Co., and Kansas Pacific Rwy., 4837.
PACIFIC MAIL STEAMSHIP COMPANY:
Statement of amounts paid it by Union Pacific, Central Pacific, and various other companies, on account of transcontinental business, from September 30, 1871, to March 31, 1886, 4275–4278.
PLAN OF SETTLEMENT:
Extension of time: Favored, 1509, 1521, 1573, 1583, 1956, 1957, 2074, 2169, 2236, 2237, 2400, 3013, 3406. Not favored, 1771. Condemned, 1349–1351, 1501, 1771. An extension favored, even if certain debt would not be paid, 1491. Extension naturally expected, 772, 844. A blanket mortgage for one hundred and twenty-five years, 214. At 3 per cent., company to have right to pay money or take new bonds, 590, 591. For one hundred years at 3 per cent., 769. For one hundred and fifty years preferable, 771. An extension on easy terms and additional security, 737. Extension, with power to take mortgage and pay off Government debt, 844, 845. Extension, with power to build branch lines, 1582, 1663. Long small bonds, at low rates, with power to build extensions, 2203. Long bonds at low rates, payable by installments annually, 2206. Central Pacific debt should be wiped out or payment required of principal only, with long time, 3086. The public favor an equitable extension, 854, 1667, 2236, 2237, 2244. Public sentiment divided on this point, 1745.

Fixed annual payment, 614, 736, 772, 995, 996. Union Pacific could pay about $1,800,000 a year now, to be increased later, 856, 857. A long bond paying an annual sum, with low rate of interest, 749, 1818. Union Pacific would cheerfully pay $1,600,000 a year, 612. Central Pacific could only pay $600,000 or $700,000 yearly, 3086. A gross payment rather than percentage of net earnings, 736, 737, 749, 841, 1818, 1878.
Compromise for cash, 995, 996.
The right to build branches necessary, 770, 773, 1522, 1663, 2075. Effect on rates as favorable to community if territory opened by other companies, 2237, 2238.
Additional security, 737. On new branch lines, ample, 771. Deposit of securities of existing branch lines as collateral, 855. Building branch lines and putting their securities in escrow, 770.
Road should be put in position to pay dividends, 820. Wreckers like a non-dividend stock, 820, 821.
Independence necessary, 213, 845, 858, 995, 996, 1623. Dissolution of partnership with Government as soon as may be, 1355.
Ability of the companies to pay, 734, 819, 2400, 3406. Of Union Pacific, if given its independence, 213. Of Central Pacific, depends on circumstances over which road has no control, 2521. Of Central Pacific in certain contingencies, 3407. Central Pacific will never be able to pay, 1560, 1561, 3387. If Central Pacific debt is $60,000,000, liquidation not possible in one hundred years, 3408. Central Pacific will need all its resources to pay first mortgage interest and operating expenses, 3387, 3388. Central Pacific, severed from its feeders and from Southern Pacific, would not pay operating expenses and fixed charges, 3590. Southern Pacific bound to pay interest on Central Pacific's Government debt, 2738, 2811. Government can not get its money, 1989. How the Government could get its money back, 3025. Of Sioux City and Pacific, 2283, 2321.
Effect of extension; junior lien holders could not complain, 845. Will continue extortionate rates, 1350, 1351. On communities, 2236, 2237, 2244, 2274. Would debt be paid? 772, 773, 1521, 1522.
Foreclosure favored, 1501, 1517, 1524, 1533, 1534, 1922. Not favored, 1510. Of first first mortgage, 1352, 1431. What Union Pacific would bring under the hammer, 1354.
Effect of, 1517, 1534, 1960, 1961. Would not materially affect community at large, 1958. How it would affect other roads, 1354. Would give Government debt to the Western people, 1353. Would reduce capitalization to actual value, 1354. Would wipe out Government debt and stockholders' interest, 1431. Another road might have to be built, 1666.
Possession could be obtained by Government for default under Thurman act, 1767. First mortgage would have to be assumed, 1767, 1768, 1770.
Government control: Not an advantage, 1818. Not favored, 1862, 1874, 1922, 1956, 1957. Favored, 1501, 1502, 1534. Would be free from partisanship, 1768, 1769. Would make a political machine of road, 1819. Would cheapen transportation, stimulate enterprise, and hasten growth of communities, 1769. Road would earn more money, 1770. Much would depend on Government's action after taking possession, 2275. Only first mortgage interest and operating expenses could be paid, 3388. Operation of main line at simply operating expenses would bankrupt branch lines and demoralize freight traffic generally, 1428, 1429. Beneficial to community, 1502.
Miscellaneous:
A different basis for Central than that for Union Pacific. Government lien more secure on latter, 996.
Debt should be settled for a sum equal to the value of road over first mortgage, 1518.
Government should cancel debt, 1561.
Should require payment of the interest only, at 2 or 2½ per cent., and let principal go, 1593, 1594.
Should take up all securities and convert them into preferred stock at 2½ per cent. and cut rates in two, 1713.

PLAN OF SETTLEMENT—Continued.
Miscellaneous—Continued.
Debt should have been paid before dividends declared, 1655, 1656.
Ninety per cent. of Union Pacific stock said to be unpaid, should be collected from the stockholders and applied to liquidation of debt, 1350, 1352. United States Supreme Court decision as to payment of balance on stock, 1352. This would enable reduction of 50 per cent in rates, 1351.
Union Pacific should have use of $7,000,000 in Government's hands to invest in their own bonds, 769.
Suggestions made by Director Alexander in his report to Government, 854, 855.
As to Central Pacific, question of extension immaterial, if the equities claimed in favor of the road are allowed, as their amount exceeds the Government debt, 2521. Central Pacific debt and interest at maturity compared with saving in transportation charges to same date, 2596, 2597.
Mr. Gould's offer of $30,000,000 for the debt of Union Pacific, 510-512, 1517.
